Address

to His Most Excellent Majesty Edward the Seventh of The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland & from
The Bray Urban District Council

May it please Your Majesty the Bray Urban District Council as the Electd representatives of the People of one of the most progressive and prosperous of the Islands of Ireland. desire to avail of the opportunity afforded by Your inaugural visit to our Country as King of these Realms to bid You and Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen a sincere and heartfelt welcome.

The deep affection with which You regard Your Irish Subjects is sincerely appreciated by all sections of the Community and we earnestly hope and pray that You may be long spared to exercise Your kindly influence for the benefit of our Country and that You will "Come back to Erin" accompanied by Her Majesty the Queen on many occasions in a long line of future years.

We trust that the widespread desire of our Countrymen for the establishment of a Royal Residence within easy reach of the Metropolis of Ireland will be realized during Your Majesty's reign in recognition of the loyalty and affection of the Irish People to the Throne and Royal Family.

During the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Bray grew from a bare fishing village into a prosperous town, the chief bathing place of Ireland, and one of the most beautiful of British Health Resorts, and we are hopeful that during Your Majesty's reign its progress and prosperity will be augmented and maintained.

Assuring Your Majesty of the affection of our People for the Royal Family and their devoted loyalty to Your Throne and Person
We remain,

Your Majesty's obedient and dutiful servants
