4694 A Councillor J. M. Magee proposed and Councillor J. Metcalfe seconded:-

" That we, the Bray Urban District Council, view
 " with alarm the probability of a crisis arising
 " between Banks and their staffs, and were
 " pleased to note that the Directors of the " Hibernian Bank have taken a sane and
 " sensible step in stating that they are " willing to have a conference with a view
 " to discussing matters, and preventing
 " such a state of disorganisation in the
 " financial and other affairs of the country
 " as would arise if the Banking staffs
 " were to go on strike. We respectfully urge
 " on our Treasurer, the Hibernian Bank,
 " and other Banks concerned, the wisdom of
 " referring the matter in dispute to arbitration,
 " and we also think that the time has arrived
 " when the staffs of the various Banks, having
 " formed an organisation, should receive the
 " recognition, and all complaints or grievances

"should be made to the Directors through their Organisation, and that copies be sent to our Treasurer and Secretary, Bank Officials Organisation"

Unanimously passed.
