NOTICE.

The Supervisors of roads, are requested to take Notice that unless the Affidavits be returned to the Office ten days previous to Special Sessions, as in case of other Presentments, they cannot in future be entered on the Schedule.

The Treasurer again requests, that the different Overseers (when filling their Presentments) will pay a strict attention to the Schedule of the late Act of Parliament, as Printed in the Summers Abstract for 1823. The orders of Government are, that he shall make an annual return of all NEW WORKS, AND REPAIRS OF OLD WORKS separately, as classed in the Schedule of the Act; which it will be impossible for him to comply with, if the Overseers continue to include the amount of the Sums repquired, for compleating works of any two or more classes in one Sum and in one Presentment.

of those Overseers were omitted by mistake and we appoint I. A. Eccles to be also an Overseer of same.

County of Wicklow, } Isaac Ambrose Eccles to wit. } maketh Oath and saith, that at the last lent Assize. Presentments were passed to open a new line of road from Rathdrum to Dublin, betw an angle in deponents wall and the east gale of his demesne at Cronroe, and deponent Swears that the said new line of road is now open and passable for the Public, and that the said new line answers every purpose of the old line of road betw the said two points, and that the said old line of road is rendered entirely useless to the Public, by the opening of the said 36 perches of new line. Sworn before me, this 10th day of July 1826.

I. A. Eccles, John Humphrys.

In Consequence of the foregoing Affidavit, we present that so much of the old line of road from Rathdrum to Dublin, on Cronroe, as is cut off by the opening of the 36 perches of new line, may be stop'd up as soon as the new road is finished.

We present that the two Supervisorships now held by Charles Tottenham, Esq. be Consolidated, and that they be in future considered as one Supervisorship, the one being that of summer 1825 and being 642½ perches, on that part of road from Wicklow to Roundwood and Bray (thro Mt.-Kennedy) which lies betw the Rev. J. Fletchers wall at Dunran and Nuns-cross Church at Clara, the other Supervisorship being that of lent Assizes 1826 and being 510 perches of road, leading from Fogher and Roundwood to Wicklow, betw the cross roads in the village of Kilskey and a large sewer on the lands of Coursillagh, the two Supervisorships when Consolidated making 1152½ perches.
