We present the following Noblemen and Gentlemen, to be a Committee, to report to the Grand Jury at next Summer Assizes, upon the subject generally of applying for a Bill in Parliament for establishing a Turnpike, on the Eastern Mail Coach Road:—

EARL OF MEATH,	DAN. TIGBE,	JOHN HUMPHRYS,
EARL OF WICKLOW,	WM. ACTON,	ROBERT H. TRUPELL,
EARL OF RATHDOWNE,	RALPH HOWARD,	JOHN REVELL, JUN.
HON. G. L. PROBY,	ISAAC A. ECCLES,	ROBERT SANDYS,
HON. HUGH HOWARD,	ROBERT CHALONER,	HUGH ECCLES,
JAMES GRATTAN,	JAMES L. AUDOUIN,

To the Grand Jury of the County of Wicklow, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1829.

GENTLEMEN,

IN compliance with the appointment of the Grand Jury, at the last Summer Assizes, requesting us "to view the site of the late Bridge, at Greenane, and report upon the practicability of passing the Road over the Strand Bridge, and escaping the hill at Mr. Allen's."

We have viewed the site of the late Bridge, at Greenane, and the different situations on the river, for a Bridge, between the Strand Bridge and the Bridge at Clash; We have also viewed the different lines of Road, from the Strand Bridge to Rathdrum, and to the Sea, and from Greenane to Rathdrum, and we are of opinion, that if a Road was made from the Strand Bridge, at the same side of the river with Mr. Allen's house, by gaining on the hill gradually, the hill may be ascended above Mr. Allen's, which would not only make the ascent easy, but shorten the distance to Rathdrum, both from the Strand Bridge and Greenane, do away with the necessity of keeping in repair the different cross-roads in that neighbourhood, and be of the greatest service to the people residing in the neighbourhood of the Lead Mines; and would facilitate the intercourse with all the Mountain Districts, and the interior of the country, and by opening, at some further period, a communication with this line to Ballinacash (which could not cost much), the present steep and dangerous road, leading from thence to Rathdrum, would be ultimately done away with, thereby saving to the country the annual repair of a considerable extent of Bad Road, and facilitate the carriage of the produce of the country to Market.

We beg to refer to the annexed sketch, made by Mr. Duncan, who is well acquainted with the Roads in that part of the country, and will make a regular Survey and Map of the new intended line of Road, should the Grand Jury be of opinion it ought to be made.

We are also of opinion that the Bridge at Greenane, ought to be re-built, which We submit as our report.

We have the honor to be,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble Servants,
WILLIAM KEMMIS,
WILLIAM T. BOOKEY,
THOS. M. KING.

January, 1829.

(Approved of by the Grand Jury.)
