COUNTY AT LARGE, Continued.

We present the balance in the Treasurers hands, to be two Thousand, two Hundred and Eight Pounds, Eleven Shillings and Eight Pence Halfpenny.

We present the securities entered into by John Revell, Treasurer of the County of Wicklow, in the sum of Four Thousand Pounds, together with Wm Revell and John Revell of Ardoyne, in the sum of two Thousand Pounds each, are sufficient and We approve of them as such.

We present the Total Amount of the Quæres, on the Quære Book for Summer Assizes 1823, to be Seven Thousand, Five Hundred and Eighty Three Pounds, Fifteen Shillings & Five Pence Farthing,

That the Secretary do enter in the Schedules and Baronial Books at each Assizes, presentments for half the Amount to be expended by each Supervisor, and one Shilling and Eight Pence each Furlong, for the deputies; (being a halfpenny a perch,) and to present any part thereof, that shall not be accounted for within the year, in aid of the next half yearly Presentment, and that the ballance shall be reduced into even miles and furlongs.

We present that Major Acton, and John Humphrys, Esq do draw up a Memorial to the Commissioners, for the issue of Money from the Consolidated Fund, for the sum of Two Thousand, Six Hundred & Seventy One Pounds, Twelve Shillings & a Penny, presented this Assizes, to finish a road fm Arklow to Wicklow, and that the same be laid by them before said Commissioners, in the name of the Grand Jury.

We present the following Gentlemen, to be a Committee, to inquire into the damages alledged to have been sustained by Mr. M'Dowell, by the building the Court-house, and to report to morrow morning early Messrs L. A. Eccles, Acton and Bookey.

A Committee having been appointed at last Assizes, to inquire into a complaint made of the Iron work in the Gaol, not being of the thickness provided by the contract, and they having reported that the complaint was well founded, the Grand Jury refuses to pay the percentage upon the sum of £1000 to Mr. Morrison, til he has shewn them satisfactory reason for not having performed his duty, in the Inspection of the contractors work.

Further complaints respecting the roof of the Gaol, having reached the Grand Jury, We appoint the following Gentlemen, a committee to inquire into, & report at the next Assizes. — Messrs. Dennis, I. A. Eccles, Wm. Acton, H. Eccles, R. Saunders.

We present Messrs. Acton, H. Eccles and J. Humphrys, to be a committee to examine Mr. Probys accounts, while Overseer of the Eastern M. C. road.

We Appoint the Sessions for inquiring into applications for presentments, to be held at Wicklow, for Arklow and Rathdowns on the third Monday in January. for Newcastle and Wicklow division of Ballinacor on the Tuesday following; at Baltinglass the Friday following, and at Tinehely on the Monday in the following week.

We appoint the accounting Sessions in the Month of October. to be held in the Co. Court-house of Wicklow and Baltinglass, on the following days viz at Wicklow on Monday the 27th of October, at Baltinglass on Thursday the 16th of October.

We present Wm P. Higinbotham Esq. an additional Overseer to cut down the hill at Mr. Valentines gate, on Davidstown.

We present the following Gentlemen to be a Committee, to inquire into the Treasurers Accounts, and to ascertain that he has complied with the Provision of the new Act, relating to him.
July 5th 1823.
Messrs. Grattan, Green, Haigh, and Truell.

We the Grand Jury, have read the accounts pass'd this Sessions respecting the Office of Treasurer, and We have conform'd to it as far as possible at this Assizes, the Treasurer states that he has made no cumpositions, and that he is not called upon to conform to the other Clause of the Act. until next year.
