ADMINISTRATION OF BRAY

MR. MEGHEN'S TERM ENDS

Mr. P. J. Meghen, B.E., who has administered the affairs of Bray Urban District for the past six years, has relinquished the office of Commissioner.

At his final sitting yesterday he expressed his appreciation of the assistance given him by the Town Clerk, the Accountant, the Surveyor, and other officials. Whatever success attended his efforts would have been impossible without their co-operation.

He felt very contented that the affairs of the township would still be administered by a capable and efficient staff. He did not want to discuss the work done during those six years, but so far as he was concerned everything he did he tried to do in the best interests of Bray. He was sure he did not succeed in pleasing everyone, but those things that did not please were only done after due consideration in the interests of the town.

LOW RATE UNDESIRABLE.

He felt he was successful in assisting the development of the town. He had not succeeded in reducing the burden on the ratepayers, but it was not possible to develop the town on a low rate. The administration of a seaside town presented many more problems than that of an ordinary urban district, and it would be fatal for a U.D.C. like Bray to confine themselves rigidly to what he might call Local Government administration. There must be a constant effort to brighten the town and put it in the forefront of seaside resorts, and that work had taken as much time as the ordinary administration.

They had succeeded in keeping Bray well in the public eye, and the claim of Bray to be the premier resort of Ireland had been successfully upheld. He felt his successors would have the fullest co-operation of the staff, and there was little reason to fear for the future administration of Bray.

He expressed his appreciation of the courtesy of the Press for the full and accurate reports that they had always given of the meetings. He expressed regret that one who had been a very good attendant was absent through illness—Mr. Redmond, of the Irish Independent. He hoped Mr. Redmond would soon be restored to health.

Mr. E. M. Murphy, Town Surveyor, expressed appreciation of the splendid work done by Mr. Meghen for Bray, and he was sure his successors would learn a good deal from what he had done.

The Town Clerk said they had all got along very well during Mr. Meghen's time as Commissioner.

Mr. P. Devitt, accountant, considered it was a matter for regret that Mr. Meghen was severing his connection with the town for which he had done so much.

THE CLERK OF WORKS.

The O'Rahilly F.F. Cumann wrote protesting against the appointment of Mr. Russell as Clerk of Works for the Oldcourt housing scheme. Bray Trades' Council and Labour Party also wrote protesting against the appointment, and requesting the Commissioner to receive a deputation before the appointment was made.

The Town Clerk said the appointment had been sanctioned by the L.G.D.

The Commissioner said the appointment was in accordance with the Minister's circular. Mr. Russell was the existing resident clerk of works and engineer on the development of the scheme, so that putting him as clerk of works over the houses was only extending the appointment. The objections were not to the point. He had seen the deputation from the Trades' Council, and had explained the matter to them.
