Talbotstown, to wit } at a sessions held at Baltinglass, this 8th day of February, 1821, that the cess has been from time immemorial apportioned in the following manner off said Half Barony, viz. 481 county acres, as they are called, contained in the parishes of Baltinglass, Ballinure, Rathbran, and such parts of Dunlavin and Timolin, as are within the Half Barony, being nearly one halfpenny the county acre for each pound on the district.

The applotters fees to be 2d. the county acre.
One-fourth of the cess of the Half Barony is levied off ten mark lands in the parish of Donoughmore and its unions.
