Ms. C. Flood, Senior Executive Officer presented on the following areas

1. Urban Regeneration
2. Rural Regeneration
3. Funding applications to be developed across the Municipal Districts

Ms. Flood advised that there was a wide range of schemes proposed with a very tight deadline for submission and as Project Ireland 2040 is an ongoing programme the Council is hopeful that projects not successful this time round will be in the pipeline for future consideration.

ITEM NO. 16

To receive a presentation from SEE Ireland: Proposed development of offshore wind energy in Ireland; plans to progress the development of the 520MW+ Arklow Bank Wind Park off the coast of County Wicklow.

The Cathaoirleach welcomed Ms. Marian Troy Head of Corporate Affairs and Mr. Murdo McGhie, Offshore Project Director who presented on the Arklow Bank Offshore Wind Park:-

- SEE overview
- SEE's Offshore Wind Energy Portfolio (Britain and Ireland)
- Arklow Bank Phase 1 – existing wind farm
- Changing climate for offshore wind energy in Ireland
- An Economic Opportunity for Wicklow
- Arklow Bank Wind Park
- What Arklow Wind Park will deliver

- Arklow Bank – Project timeline

At the conclusion of the presentation Ms. Troy thanked the elected members for receiving the presentation. She advised that SEE believed that Arklow Bank Wind Park can be a world class project. After 15 years of being installed they are finally at a point where the offshore wind energy revolution is about to begin for Ireland and Wicklow can be at the forefront of that revolution which she said will not only help transform the way in which power is generated for a cleaner, low carbon future, but it will also unlock the enormous economic and job creation potential that a new offshore wind sector can deliver.

At the conclusion of the discussion, the Cathaoirleach advised that SEE had issued an invitation to a number of elected members and officials to visit their plant at Inverness in Scotland and he suggested that elected members from the Wicklow and Arklow MD have the opportunity to participate. It was agreed that this invitation would be discussed at the protocol meeting.
