

Household Budget Payments – Qualifying Social Welfare Payments

The qualifying payments, which must be paid to you by the Post Office, are listed below:

- Jobseeker's benefit and allowance
- Supplementary welfare allowance
- Carer's benefit and allowance
- State pension (contributory, non-contributory and transition)
- Pre-retirement allowance
- Disability allowance
- One-parent family payment
- Invalidity pension
- Widow's, widower's and surviving civil partner's (contributory and non-contributory) pension
- Blind pension

If the social welfare source is not listed above, then the person will not be able to participate in the household budget scheme instead you must pay your rent by Bank Standing Order. (Payments under Gateway Schemes are not eligible for HHB),
