Cllr. Pat Kennedy

“That the Members of Arklow Municipal District provide funding or seek funding as a matter of urgency for the provision of a pedestrian crossing and traffic calming measures at Our Lady’s National School, Aughrim. This would include a pedestrian crossing and ramp opposite the school and a ramp on the approach road from Woodfab towards the school. This would facilitate the safe crossing of the school population of Our Lady’s National School from one side of the road to the other.” (Received 1st June 2015)
