Ms. Sinéad Boddy, Assistant Staff Officer

Cllr Annesley welcomed all to the meeting and commented that it had been a very quick year and that he had held the position of Cathaoirleach of the district with great honour and pride. Cllr Annesley mentioned all of the achievements of the members and staff throughout the year and commended all present and the wider community for their commitment. Special mention was given to the housing projects started leading to 120 new units within the district and to roads and footpath projects within the district.

Cllr Annesley welcomed Brendan Doyle the new Engineer for the district and thanked staff past and present for their continued support.

Cllr Bourke congratulated Cllr Annesley on a brilliant job done for the whole district during a challenging year.

Cllr Murphy said that Cllr Annesley had been a great Cathaoirleach and was always loyal to the Chamber and to Arklow.

Cllr McDonald thanked Cllr Annesley for everything during the year and while the plenary meetings could be tiresome the AMD meeting were never so and wished him the best of luck.

Cllr Kennedy expressed his congratulations and thanks to Cllr Annesley for representing the district and acknowledged the pressure of the role and that he gave it his all.

Cllr Fitzgerald commented that Cllr Annesley had done a tremendous job and the commitment in all areas of the role – best officials in 19 years.

Micheal Geaney DM wished Cllr Annesley all the best and referred to recent events in Castlepark and appreciated the team work to resolve the issue and thanked him for his leadership.

Item 1: Election of Cathaoirleach.

Election of Cllr Murphy as Cathaoirleach was proposed by Cllr Fitzgerald and seconded by Cllr Annesley.
