Arklow Town Parking Permits for Rates Customers

The aim of this scheme is to encourage early payment of commercial rates and to reward customers who do so. The conditions of the scheme are generally as follows:

- Any rates customer will be entitled to two parking permits if they pay their rates in full, including arrears, by 28th April each year.
- Any rates customer will be entitled to one parking permit if they sign up and commence payment via bank direct debit/standing order to pay their rates by the 30th November each year. Customers who have a history of paying in two moieties during the year will also qualify.
- The permit will be specific for a particular car, submission of registration and other details will be necessary.
- An additional parking permit may be purchased at Arklow Municipal District, Castlepark, Arklow, Co. Wicklow for an annual fee of €300.00
- The permit will be valid from date of issue (and display) until 31st December. So the earlier the permit is issued the more value there is to the customer.
- Permits will only be issued for spaces in the two main Car Parks, ie Main Street Car Park and Castle Street Car Park. A permit does not guarantee an available space.
- The permit must be displayed prominently on the windshield.
- Completed forms to be returned to the Revenue Section, Wicklow County Council, County Buildings, Co. Wicklow.
- Wicklow County Council reserves the right to issue and revoke permits and to amend the above criteria on an annual basis.
