The following

Copy of Resolution Passed by the Board of Guardians of Castlebar Union, at their Meeting, held on the 1st March, 1902. was approved.

Proposed by Mr. Martin GOWLEY, Vice-Chairman, seconded by Mr. MARTIN REILLY, and

RESOLVED,—That we, the Guardians of the Castlebar Poor Law Union, desire to direct the attention of the Right Honourable the Chief Secretary for Ireland, to the fact, that in a considerable number of Unions in this country, the duty of the preparation of the Parliamentary Voters and Jurors' Lists has been transferred by the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, to Secretaries of County Councils.

That duty can be satisfactorily done only by the Clerks of Unions, who have all the requisite local knowledge at their disposal to enable them to properly perform the work. That the section of Clerks most particularly affected by the operation of the Act in this respect, are Officers upon whom has devolved an amount of work and responsibility equal in every way to that borne by the more fortunate Clerks who were "Existing Officers" at the passing of the Act. That as the cost of the preparation of the Parliamentary Voters and Jurors' Lists, though paid by the County Councils, is eventually levied off the Unions concerned, we think it would be only just and equitable that this work should be re-transferred to the Clerks of the said Unions. That such re-transference would be a merited addition to the remuneration of the Officers who have been so injuriously affected by the operation of the Act, without the Guardians having to impose any extra burthen on the rates.

That we cannot but view as unwise and unfair, from the standpoint of efficient and careful work, the centralization in the County Councils' Offices of the preparation of the Parliamentary Voters and Jurors' Lists, for the whole of this large County of Mayo, as well as for the other Counties in Ireland. That the result of this centralization will be to enormously increase the yearly salaries of the already well paid County Secretaries (an increase of over £600 per year in Mayo alone), and to greatly lessen those of the Clerks of Unions—very capable and hard-working officials—who have been appointed since the passing of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, and who may in future be appointed.

We, therefore, trust, that the theory of vastly increasing the emoluments of one Office in a County, to the impoverishment of all the other Offices under the Local Government Board in the same County, may be reconsidered and reversed.

That, therefore, considering the justice of our request, we respectfully call upon the Chief Secretary to take steps to have the law amended, so that this duty shall be re-transferred to all Clerks of Unions irrespectively.

That copies of this Resolution be sent to the Right Honourable the Chief Secretary, and our County Members; and also to each Board of Guardians in Ireland with the request that the said Boards may be good enough to adopt it in justice to their Officers.

(Signed) THOMAS WALSH (Chairman).
1st March, 1902.

An inmate named Anne Dwyer was ordered to be supplied with a pair of Boots on taking her discharge.

On the application of Relieving Officer Ellis, he was granted exemption from duty on Friday next. R.O. O'Keefe to do his duty.

The Clerk was directed to instruct Messrs. Brown & McCann to have the decree obtained against Beattie placed in the handing the Sheriff for execution.

He was also requested to communicate with the Contractor for fenders to supply a fine quality.

With regard to the application of the ~~inmate~~ James Foley for an apprentice the Clerk informed the Board that as the boy, Donohoe, was not an orphan or deserted child having reached the age of 15 years the fee required by Foley to place the boy to the trade for a ~~inmate~~ could not be paid.

Messrs Brown & McLean Solicitors, writing under date 11th March 02 stated that they were lodging the decree in the case of the fraudulent death with the Sheriff for execution as instructed.

An application received from an inmate named Anne Redmond for a suit of clothing for her son was refused.

could not permit that the lives of sick patients should be endangered by being removed in an ambulance in charge of a person addicted to drink. The Board therefore requested the Guardians to dismiss the van-driver & proceed to appoint a suitable person for the position.

On the proposition of Mr. Fleming seconded by Mr. Kavanagh it was resolved: - "That in the opinion of this Board we may mention for the information of the L.B. Board that the van-driver, Synnott, is not addicted to drink, and that the occasion on which the Guardians took exception to Synnott, he got a great deal of hardship & was suffering from a severe cold - which on inquiries made by the Guardians was found to be true. Synnott has always been most attentive to any patients that have been entrusted to his charge & he has at this time taken a total abstinence pledge under the circumstances, after carefully considering this case, the Board restored Synnott to his former position & we would ask the L.B. Board to not press for his dismissal."

There were only two beds in the house for 4 people. Mrs Jourdau's husband is at present suffering from lung trouble which may be Tuberculosis. The situation & structure of the house is poor: as regards the water & N.S. both are up to the requirements. I believe Mrs Jourdau has a cow.
