

WORKSHEET 1: KEY WORD DEFINITIONS

Match the word to the correct definition.

Reliable Corroboration Fact Exaggerate Opinion Primary
Biased Source Proof Secondary

Word:	Definition:
	A source created after the time being studied.
	To make the truth bigger.
	A person's thoughts or feelings.
	A source that comes from the time being studied.
	Information that is supported or backed up by evidence.
	A story that could be partly true or only tells one side of the story.
	100% true and can be proven.
	Where we get historical information from.
	Something we can trust or is truthful.

WORKSHEET 2: CHOOSING A TOPIC

Topic:
How will I narrow the focus?
Why am I interested in researching this topic?
Possible Sources:	1
	2
	3

WORKSHEET 3: WHY IS MY TOPIC HISTORICALLY SIGNIFICANT?

Topic

Reason I selected this topic

Which of the 4 R's (remembered, remarkable, resulting in change, revealing) is relevant to this topic? Why?

WORKSHEET 4: SOURCE ANALYSIS

Books, History Journals, Newspapers, Websites

Title
Author
Publisher
Place & Date / Year of Publication		Page:
Website
Date Accessed
Type of source	Primary <input type="checkbox"/>		Secondary <input type="checkbox"/>
	Written <input type="checkbox"/>	Visual <input type="checkbox"/>	Oral <input type="checkbox"/>	Aural <input type="checkbox"/>	Tactile <input type="checkbox"/>

Information Gathered / Notes Taken:

Strengths of Source:

Weaknesses of Source:

Note: You may need more than one copy if you have more than one source of the same type

WORKSHEET 4: SOURCE ANALYSIS

TV or Radio Documentary, Podcast

Title
Year
Channel
Writer / Director Presenter / Narrator
Date Accessed
Type of source	Primary <input type="checkbox"/>		Secondary <input type="checkbox"/>
	Written <input type="checkbox"/>	Visual <input type="checkbox"/>	Oral <input type="checkbox"/>	Aural <input type="checkbox"/>	Tactile <input type="checkbox"/>

Information Gathered / Notes Taken:

Strengths of Source:

Weaknesses of Source:

Note: You may need more than one copy if you have more than one source of the same type