At the commencement of the meeting a roll call was taken. The Meetings Administrator advised of meetings etiquette for online meetings and that the press and some members of the public were also present.

Voting

The Meetings Administrator advised the elected members to keep their microphones and cameras on during the voting process. Once an amendment is proposed and seconded the Cathaoirleach will ask the elected member to clearly indicate, vote verbally and by way of a show of hand on the screen if a member is in agreement with the amendment as put forward. The response will be followed by a brief pause following which the Cathaoirleach will ask the elected member to verbally indicate if there is disagreement or dissent as to the proposal put forward. If one or more elected member indicates they are not in agreement a roll call will be taken. If there is no dissent the amendment will be considered passed.

Disclosures

The Meetings Administrator reminded the elected members of their requirements under the ethics legislation that;

1. When a matter comes before the meeting for consideration, if they or a connected person has a beneficial interest, they must disclose to the meeting the nature of the beneficial interest before discussion or consideration of the matter commences.

2. They must withdraw fully from the meeting until the matter is concluded.
3. They must also inform the Council's Ethics Registrar in writing.
4. The disclosure and absence from the meeting will be recorded in the minutes.
5. When the item is completed the member will be advised by phone and can rejoin the meeting.

Votes of Sympathy

Elected Members passed a vote of sympathy to the families of the late Cllr. Pat Doran and Mr. Owen Malone. The Cathaoirleach and Elected Members along with the Chief Executive collectively paid tribute to the late Cllr. Pat Doran stating that Cllr. Doran gave a long and dedicated service not just to the Carnew area but to all the people of County Wicklow, he was acknowledged as a 'man of the people' and for the people and an honest and hard-working councillor. The family of the late Cllr. Doran joined the meeting to hear the sentiments expressed. A minutes silence was observed for the deceased.

ITEM NO. 1
