2

Glencree Barracks

-- Lt. James, R.E.

About one mile N. of Lower Lough Bray in the T.M. of

Glencree Barracks (contd.)

Powerscourt Mountain. - At a distance Glencree Barracks commanding the whole valley appears more like some lordly mansion than what it really is. In a military point of view the situation is highly objectionable for ~~thru~~ though commanding the whole valley beneath and in front, it is in its turn commanded by the very high ground in rear, so that it might ~~be~~ be gained possession of without much difficulty.

Dargle River -- See Bray Ph. Name Book 4

Rises in Powerscourt Mountain forms part of S. boundary, crosses Powerscourt Deer Park, Ballinagee, Onagh & Powerscourt Demesne & then forms part of the boundary adjoining Kilmacannogue.
