RESOLUTIONS

Respecting Public Business, entered in County Book.

Lent Assizes, 1784.

RESOLVED Unanimously, that we will not hereafter present any sum to the high constables of this county for collecting the public cesses, unless each high constable shall give a transcript of the treasurer's warrant; containing a recital of every presentment therein, to each of his petty conftables, and do also indorse on the back of every petty constable's warrant a list of all the petty constablewicks in his district, with the feveral fums to be collected off of each.

Lent Assizes, 1797.

RESOLVED, that it is proper that the sheriff and gaoler of the county shall, on the first day of each affizes lay before the Grand Jury a list of all bolts, shackles, and padlocks, in his or their custody on that day, as also, a list of all such bolts, shackles, and padlocks, as were delivered to them by the preceding sheriff.

AND, that we recommend it to every future affizes grand jury to reject every application of every sheriff and gaoler who shall not have presented such lists at such affizes, verified by an affidavit or affidavits fworn before fome magistrate of this county.

Spring Assizes, 1800.

RESOLVED, that it is the opinion of this Grand Jury, that all fums prefented previous to lent affizes, 1798, which shall not be accounted for at the next summer affizes, be then re-presented for public purposes.

Summer Assizes, 1800.

RESOLVED, that all applications for presentments of money for sees, support of prisoners, rents, &c. with the proper documents, be given to the Clerk of the Grand Jury before the fecond morning of the affizes, to be by him entered in a lift, and then laid before the Grand Jury.

Spring Assizes, 1801.

RESOLVED, that it is the opinion of the Grand Jury, that in future the gaoler shall, at the end of every week, make out an account of the number of prisoners in his custody, for the week preceding, distinguishing the number in custody on each day, and also, of the quantity of bread distributed to such prisoners, and the such, blankets, and other necessaries, furnished for the use of the prisoners in that week, and, that such account shall be verified upon oath, copies of which account shall be returned weekly to the inspector of the gaol, and the original returned to the Grand Jury at each affizes.

RESOLVED, that whenever the expences for bread and other necessaries shall appear, by the accounts and affidavits before required, to exceed the sum presented for the said purposes, the treasurer be, and is hereby requested, from time to time, when requested by the said inspector so to do, to advance money to the inspector to reimburse such exceeding, provided the sum to be so advanced, shall not amount in the whole to more than the sum of sifty pounds.

RESOLVED, that the gaoler of Wicklow is required to produce to the Grand Jury at every affizes, and at every fessions, an exact list of the blankets in his custody, distinguishing the length and width of each blanket, and that he keep an exact copy of every such list, and produce that book at every affizes to the Grand Jury.
