

FIELD NAME BOOK

of

A. 153 BOYSTOWN Parish

A. 287

Co. Wicklow

INDEX

Page

Ballynoulthagh	12
Ballynouthagh	9
Black Hill	11
Ballynastocken, Brook	10
Buillehemashbui, Brook	13
Blackmoor Hill	12
Carrig	3
Carriganee	14
Carrigrock	15
Cleevawn Lough	16
Cock Brook	18
Crocknaneo	20
Dealbog Brook	21
Glanacapul Brook	22
Glanavada Brook	23
Kilbeg Parish	0
Kilbeg	5
Kings River	24
Lacken	6
Lugachulleen Brook	25
Lacken village	36
Mullaghcleevawn	26
Parkbawn Brook	27
Priests Bridge	28
Shraughan	8
Sorrel Hill	29
Templeboodin	30
Tent Brook	31
The Lodge	32
Tramonghar Brook	33
Whelp Rock	34
Whitebog Brook	35
Crockanarcleugh	17.

George A. Bennett.

Lieut. R. Engr., 27 Febr. '38

Kilbeg Ph.

-- See P. 5.

1

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Ir. Talbottstown; it is bounded on the North by Blessington Ph.; on the E. by Blessington & Derralossary; on the W. by Boyston & Burgage and on the South by Granabeg Ph.

This Parish contains 7419 acres 1 rood 33 pers. Greater Part of which is uncultivated. There is a small village in the N.W. side of the Ph. Called Lacken for description See pa. 6.

Ballynoulthagh pronounced Ballinoulthaw

1½

Baile 'nUitach, Town of the Ulstermen.

Ballynoltagh	-- Inq. temp. Car. I.
Ballymultagh	-- T.O'C.
Ballynoulthagh	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch
-----Do.-----	-- Wm. Merrey Blessington
-----Do.-----	-- Joseph Mooney Blessington
Ballymulta	-- Patrick Lawlor
Ballynoultha	-- J. Rickards C.C.
Ballinoulthagh	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow, May 1834
Ballymulta	-- Assessment list 1800
-----Do.---	-- Old list

It is situated in the Parish of Kilbeg, Barony of Lower Talbotstown and Co. of Wicklow. It is bounded on the N. and E. by the Parish of Blessington; on the S. by those of Derralossary & Granabeg & on the W. by the Townland of Kilbeg in this Parish.

The Property of Luke Brady Esqr. of Co. Clare. Mr. Ebbs Rathmore Agent. It contains 2893 acres of which only 40 acres are cultivated, the remainder of the Townland is under Heath; the whole is held by 4 leases jointly & severally at a rent of £28 per annum. Grazing is the chief dependence of the tenants. The hills in this Townland are well stocked with game (grouse & woodcock). Communicates with Blessington by a bad road across the mountains, distance to Blessington 5½ miles.

Carrig

3

Carraig, a rock.

Carrig	-- T.O'C.
Carrig	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch
--Do.--	-- Wm. Merrey, Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Mooney, Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Rickards C.C.
--Do.--	-- Allens Map of Wicklow, May 1834

Carrig (contd.)

Carricke -- Down Survey
Carrigg -- Old list

It is situated in the Parish of Kilbeg, Barony of Lower Talbotstown, Co. Wicklow. It is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the Ph. of Buggage; on the S. by that of Boystown; & on the E. by the Townland of Shraughan in this Ph.

Proprietor L. Brady of Co. Clare Esqr. Agent Mr. Ebbs, Rathmore. Farms are from 17 to 25 acres; general rent £1. per acre; it is poor rocky unproductive land. The Townland contains 382 acres of which 82 acres are uncultivated; a tolerably good road passes through the centre of the T. Land, leading from Blessington to Lacken. The former which is the Market town, is two miles distant.

Kilbeg

5

Coill beag, small wood. Pronounced by the inhabitants Kylebeg.

Kilbeg -- J. O'D.
Kilbeg -- By. Surveyor's Sketch
-- Do. -- -- Wm. Merrey Blessington
-- Do. -- -- J. Mooney Blessington
Kylebeg -- J. Rickards C.C.
Kilbeg -- Allens Map of Wicklow, May 1834
Kilbeg -- Assessment list 1850
Killebeg -- Down Survey
Kilbeagg -- Old list

It is situated in the Ph. of Kilbeg, Barony of Lower Talbotstown and Co. of Wicklow. It is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the T. land of Lacken in this Parish; on the S. by the Ph. of Granabeg & on the E. by the Townland of Ballyneculthagh in this Ph.

Proprietor L. Brady of Co. Clare Esqr. Agent, Mr. Ebbs, Rathmore. Contains 2108 acres let in farms from 1 to 15 acres, general rent 10/- per acre including the liberty of mountain pasture of which there are 326 acres in the T. land; it is well watered by streams from the high ground; excellent Turf is obtained from Whelprock hill & Lacken Bog and good Marl is also obtained from the latter in abundance; the road from Blessington to Ballynastocken &c. passes along its Western boundary, distance to Blessington 4½ miles.

Lacken (5, 10)

6

Leacan, hill-side.

Lacken (contd.)

Compare, an?

Lacken (Lacken?)	-- T.O'C.
Lacken	-- By. Sketch
--Do.--	-- Wm. Merrey Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Mooney, Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Rickards C.C.
--Do.--	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow, May 1834
--Do.--	-- Assessment list 1800
Lackin towne Land	-- Down Survey
Lacken	-- Old list

It is situated in Parish of Kilbeg, Barony of Lr. Talbotstown and Co. Wicklow; it is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the T. land of Shraughan in the Ph. & by the Ph. of Boystown; on the S. by the Parish of Granabeg & on the E. by the Townland of Kilbeg in this Ph.

The Property of Baron Joy Q.C. Agent H. Joy Esqr. Belfast; it contains 1541 acres of which there are 822 acres uncultivated including 290 acres of excellent Bog where abundance of good Marl is found. The Townland is divided into 4 parts, each of which is occupied by 4 Leases at a rent of £64; it is well watered by rivulets from the Upper ground. The road from Blessington to Ballynastocken &c. &c. passes through the Village of Lacken which is situated in the centre of the Townland and is 3½ miles from Blessington. 7

Shraughan

8

Srután, a brook. Locally explained, as signifying "dirty stream."

Sroughan	-- J.O'D.
Sraughan	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch
---Do---	-- Wm. Merrey, Blessington
---Do---	-- J. Mooney, Blessington
Shroughan	-- J. Rickards C.C.
Sraughan	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow May 1834.
Srahan	-- Assessment list 1800
Sruffhane	-- Down Survey
Sraghan	-- Old list

It is situated in the Ph. of Kilbeg, Barony of Lr. Talbotstown & Co. of Wicklow; it is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the Townland of Corrig in this Ph.; on the S. by the Ph. of Boystown & on the E. by the Townland of Lacken in this Parish.

Shraughan (contd.)

The Property of L. Brady of Co. Clare Esqr. Agent Mr. Ebbs, Rathmore; it contains 497 acres of which 183 acres are uncultivated & serve for grazing sheep; the general size of Farms is from 10 to 50 acres; Rent 13/- to 18/- per acre. The Townland is divided into what are termed by the tenants 1st & 2nd Shraughan; the road from Blessington to Lacken passes through its centre, the distance to the former, which is the nearest market Town, is $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Ballynoulthagh

9

Baile na n-Clitach, villa ^{Uittoniorum} ~~Uittoniorum~~ town of the Ulstermen.

Ballynultagh	-- J.O'D.
Ballynoulthagh	-- James Lowry
-----Do.-----	-- W. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- W. Walsh, Do.

The N.ern extremity of the Townland of the same name. Merely a few (about 5) houses near each other, the only habitations in the Townland, the inhabitants are the tenants, (4 in number), who hold the Townland. See Ballynoulthagh, p.1.

Ballynastocken Brook

20

Baile na stacán, stake-town.

Ballynastockan	-- J.O'D.
Ballinastockan Ac. (so called. Wm W.M.)	---T.O'C.
Ballynastocken Brook	-- James Lowry Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----Do.---	-- Michael Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----Do.---	-- Henry Walsh, Lacken
Ballinastocken	-- Assessment list 1800

It forms the Southern Boundary of the Townland of Lacken, Ph. Kilbeg & the By^W. between that Parish & Grana-beg.

This is a considerable mountain stream; from its source until it forms the By. of Lacken, a distance of $\frac{1}{2}$ one and one fourth of a mile, it is called the Cock Brook; from the numbers of that Species of Game found on its banks in the season, its course is S.ward & very much curved. See Cock Brook, p. 18.

Black Hill

11

Black hill	-- T.O'C.
Black Hill	-- James Lowry B.noulthagh
-----Do.---	-- W. Walsh, Lacken

Black Hill (contd.)

Black Hill

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Parish of Kilbeg & Townland of Kilbeg. A considerable Hill whose summit is 1605 feet above low water & is covered with Heath; excellent Turf are brought from it by the tenants.

Blackmoor Hill

12

Blackmoor hill

-- T.O'C.

Blackymore hill

-- M. Walsh, Lacken

-----Do.-----

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Blackmoor Hill

-- Allen's Map of Wicklow,
May 1834.

The Boundary between the parishes of Blessington & Kilbeg passes along its summit; the Townlands of Carrig, Shraughan & Lacken in the latter, occupy its Southern side. A considerable hill covered on the upper parts with Heath & Furze, commands a very extensive & pleasing view. Height above low water 1464 feet.

Builehemishbui Brook

13

Búille Sheúmais bhuidhe, James Boy's Dairy or milking place.

Baleyhemishboy

-- J.O'D.

Builehemishbui Brook

-- James Lowry B.noulthagh

-----Do.-----

-- M. Walsh, Lacken

-----Do.-----

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

E. side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh Ph. Kilbeg. A considerable mountain stream formed by the junction of Glanavada and Glanacapul Brooks; its course is N.ward and very rough.

Carriganee

14

Carraig an fhiad, rock of the deer.

Carriganee

-- J.O'D.

Carriganee

-- James Lowry B.noulthagh

-----Do.-----

-- M. Walsh, Lacken

-----Do.-----

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Townland of Ballynoulthagh Parish of Kilbeg. A rocky slope rising on the W. side of the first half mile of Lugachulleen Brook.

Carrig Rock

15

Carraig, a Rock.

Carrig Rock	-- Mr. Clarke Shraughan
-----Do.-----	-- Mr. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken
Carrig	-- Assessment list 1800

On the N. side of the road from Blessington to Lacken & in the E. side of the Townland of Carrig. A large mass of rock from which it is said the Townland derives its name.

Cleevawn Lough

16

Mulla' cliomáin, hill of the basket.

Cleevaun &c.	-- J.O'D.
Cleevan Lough	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

N. Eastern extremity of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh Ph. Kilbeg.

It is $4\frac{1}{2}$ acres in size, is of a very singular appearance having no apparent supply nor yet any issue that is to be seen; it is said to be of a very great depth in some parts; it is at the foot of an almost perpendicular precipice, the top of which is called Mullaghecleevan & is 2783 ft. above low water; the only issue from this Lough is the Dealbog brook which runs under ground for the first 15 chains from the Lough; the sound of the water is heard 17 from above as if it were that of some distant cataract.

Cock Brook

18

Cock Brook	-- T.O'C.
Cock Brook	-- James Lowry B. noulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

This stream forms the S. boundary of the Parish of Kilbeg from the S.ern base of Blackhill till it joins the Kings River.

A considerable mountain stream; it has its rise above the Black hill & runs a distance of 4 miles; it is successively called Cock Brook, Ballynastocken Brook and Cockbrook; the intermediate span called B.nastocken Brook commences $1\frac{1}{4}$ mile from its source & continues for two miles; great numbers of woodcock are found along its banks for the first mile from the source.

Crookan ar cleugh

19

Cnoc na g-cearc, hill of the hens (grouse). Cnocán na gcoilleach, hillock of the cocks (heaths cocks).

Crookanacleugh	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
Crookanarcleugh	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
Crookanarcleugh	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

In the Townland of Ballynoulthagh between Glanacapul Brook & Tent Brook. A regularly formed hill covered with Heath & said to be well stocked with Game.

Crook nan oo

20

Cnoc na n-ob, hill of the eggs.

Crooknanoo	-- J.O'D.
Crooknanoo	-- James Lowry Ballynoulthagh
Crooknanob	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

It is between Whitebog Brook & Parkbawn Brook in the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A hill covered with Heath & stones said to be well stocked with Game.

Dealbog Brook

21

Deal-bog. J.O'D.

Dalebog Brook (Deal pronounced Dale by the Irish)	-- T.O'C.
Dealbog Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Formed by the junction of the Tent Brook and Tramonghar Brook in the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A considerable mountain stream.

Glenacapul Brook

22

Gleann a chapuill, Glen or valley of the ~~hans~~ horse.

Glennacapple &c.	-- J.O'D.
Glanacapul	-- T.O'C.
Glanacapul Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

South side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A small mountain stream running only about 30 chains when it joins Parkbawn Brook.

Glan a Vada Brook

23

Gleann a mhadaigh, Glen or valley of the dog.

Glenavada	-- J.O'D.
Glanavada Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Near the centre of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A large mountain stream formed by the Whitebog Brook and another stream; its course is curved and extremely rough.

Kings River

24

King's River	-- T.O'C.
Kings River	-- Mr. Clarke Shraughan
	M. Walsh, Lacken
	H. Walsh, Lacken

A considerable River about a chain in breadth near its junction with the Liffey which takes place about 10 chains after it leaves the Ph. of Kilbeg; numbers of Trout are caught in it, in the proper seasons.

Lug a chulleen Brook

25

Log a chuillinn, hollow of the holly.

Lugaculleen do.	-- T.O'C.
Lugachulleen Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

It has its rise in the S.E. extremity of Ballynoulthagh Townland & about a half a mile from its source it becomes the boundary between the Phs. of Kilbeg & Blessington. A large mountain stream where there are some good Trout; the banks are constantly visited by the Woodcock in his season.

Mullagheevawn

26

Mullaó cliomáin (cliabain), hill of the basket or cradle.

Mullagheevawn	-- J.O'D.
Mullacleevawn	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
Mullagheevawn	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

The Boundary between the Parish of Kilbeg, on the N. & those of Granabeg & Derralossary, on the S.; passes along its top; at the junction of the three parishes; there is a Trig. point called Mullagh. It is one of the highest mountains in the Co. Wicklow being 2763 ft. above low water.

Mullaghcleevawn (contd.)

Parkbawn Brook

27

Páirc bán, white park.

Parkbawn Brook	-- T.O'C.
Parkbawn Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

S. end of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A small mountain stream running scarcely a mile when it joins Glanacapul Brook.

Priest's Bridge

28

Priests Bridge	-- Mr. Clark Shraughan
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

On the Boundary in the S.W.ern extremity of the Townland of Lacken. A small rustic Wooden Bridge built for the convenience of the Parish Priest. There is no bridge today, 13th January 1839, here, & a stick crosses the river.

Sorrel Hill

29

Sorrel Hill	-- T.O'C.
Sorrel Hill	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow, May 1834

The Boundary between the Parishes of Kilbeg, on the S.; and Blessington, on the N.; passes over its top. A considerable mountain covered with Heath; its summit is elevated 1975 feet above low water.

Templeboodin

30

Teampull Buidain, Boydan's Church.

Templeboodin	-- J.O'D.
Templeboodin	-- Ml. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- Henry Walsh, Lacken
Templeboothin	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow May 1834
Templeboden	-- Old list

Templeboodin (contd.)

Townland of Lacken. It is one of the 4 parts into which the Townland of Lacken is divided; there is an ancient Burying Ground in it, where, it is said, there once stood a church, no remains of which, however, are now to be seen. There is a portion of a wall which belonged to some old edifice, here.

Tent Brook

31

Tent Brook	-- T.O'C.
Tent Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
----Do.----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
----Do.----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

W. side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A small mountain stream running only one fourth of a mile from its source when it joins Tramonghar Brook.

The Lodge

32

The Lodge	-- T.O'C.
THE Lodge	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
---Do.---	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
---Do.---	-- H. Walsh, Do.

Townland of Kilbeg. A neat House (the Property of Mr. Brady) with about 30 acres of Pleasure ground; it is kept by a Game keeper & let for the shooting season to Gentlemen, for which purpose it was built convenient to the mountains. The Woodcock is often heard from the windows of the house.

Tramonghar Brook

33

Srúí Monacáin, Monaghan's stream. Traig, shere, strand must be wrong. (I think this should be Srúmonaghar. J.O'D.).

Tramonghar Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

W. side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A very small mountain stream running only 10 chains from its source when it joins the ~~Tent~~ Brook.

Whelp Rock

34

Whelp Rock	-- Mr. Clark, Shraughan
----Do.----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
----Do.----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

Whelp Rock (contd.)

W. side of Kilbeg Townland. The W. & N.W. sides of the base of Black hill are called by this name; the surface presents nothing to the eye but broken fragments of Granite mixed with some ferns.

Whitebog Brook

35

Whitebog Brook	-- T.O'C.
Whitebog Brook	-- James Lowry
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

S. end of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A considerable mountain stream issuing from Cleevawn Lough & having the first 15 chains of its course considerably under ground; the sound of the stream is heard from above as if it were a distant water fall.

Lacken Village

36

Lacken Village	-- J.O'D.
Lacken Village	-- H. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.
-----Do.-----	-- Mr. Clark, Shraughan

Near the centre of the Townland of Lacken.

It contains about 50 Houses very irregularly built & generally filthy; there is a Chapel (R.C.) in the Village, the only place of worship in the Parish of Kilbeg; it contains about 300 Litters; there is also a school house where about 60 or 80 children attend & are taught the common course of a country education; the teacher is supported by the children; the Village is supplied with water from a stream which passes through it having its rise about three fourths of a mile above the village; the inhabitants hold less or more land with the privilege of mountain pasture for a few sheep; they manufacture ^{all} their woollen clothes; they feed on little more than potatoes & Milk.

37

FIELD NAME BOOK

of

A. 153 BOYSTOWN Parish

A. 287

Co. Wicklow

INDEX

Page

Ballynoulthagh	12
Ballynouthagh	9
Black Hill	11
Ballynastocken, Brook	10
Buillehemashbui, Brook	13
Blackmoor Hill	12
Carrig	3
Carriganee	14
Carrigrock	15
Cleevawn Lough	16
Cock Brook	18
Crocknaneo	20
Dealbog Brook	21
Glanacapul Brook	22
Glanavada Brook	23
Kilbeg Parish	0
Kilbeg	5
Kings River	24
Lacken	6
Lugachulleen Brook	25
Lacken village	36
Mullaghcleevawn	26
Parkbawn Brook	27
Priests Bridge	28
Shraughan	8
Sorrel Hill	29
Templeoodin	30
Tent Brook	31
The Lodge	32
Tramonghar Brook	33
Whelp Rock	34
Whitebog Brook	35
Crockanarcleugh	17

George A. Bennett.

Lieut. R. Engr., 27 Febr. '38

Kilbeg Ph.

-- See P. 5.

1

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Ir. Talbottstown; it is bounded on the North by Blessington Ph.; on the E. by Blessington & Derralossary; on the W. by Boyston & Burgage and on the South by Granabeg Ph.

This Parish contains 7419 acres 1 rood 33 pers. Greater Part of which is uncultivated. There is a small village in the N.W. side of the Ph. Called Lacken for description See pa. 6.

Ballynoulthagh pronounced Ballinoulthaw

1½

Baile 'nUltach, Town of the Ulstermen.

Ballynoltagh	-- Inq. temp. Car. I.
Ballymultagh	-- T.O'C.
Ballynoulthagh	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch
-----Do.-----	-- Wm. Merrey Blessington
-----Do.-----	-- Joseph Mooney Blessington
Ballymulta	-- Patrick Lawlor
Ballynoultha	-- J. Rickards C.C.
Ballinoulthagh	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow, May 1834
Ballymulta	-- Assessment list 1800
-----Do.---	-- Old list

It is situated in the Parish of Kilbeg, Barony of Lower Talbotstown and Co. of Wicklow. It is bounded on the N. and E. by the Parish of Blessington; on the S. by those of Derralossary & Granabeg & on the W. by the Townland of Kilbeg in this Parish.

The Property of Luke Brady Esqr. of Co. Clare. Mr. Ebbs Rathmore Agent. It contains 2893 acres of which only 40 acres are cultivated, the remainder of the Townland is under Heath; the whole is held by 4 leases jointly & severally at a rent of £28 per annum. Grazing is the chief dependence of the tenants. The hills in this Townland are well stocked with game (grouse & woodcock). Communicates with Blessington by a bad road across the mountains, distance to Blessington 5½ miles.

Carrig

3

Carraig, a rock.

Carrig	-- T.O'C.
Carrig	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch
--Do.--	-- Wm. Merrey, Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Mooney, Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Rickards C.C.
--Do.--	-- Allens Map of Wicklow, May 1834

Carrig (contd.)

Carricke -- Down Survey
Carrigg -- Old list

It is situated in the Parish of Kilbeg, Barony of Lower Talbotstown, Co. Wicklow. It is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the Ph. of Buggage; on the S. by that of Boystown; & on the E. by the Townland of Shraughan in this Ph.

Proprietor L. Brady of Co. Clare Esqr. Agent Mr. Ebbs, Rathmore. Farms are from 17 to 25 acres; general rent £1. per acre; it is poor rocky unproductive land. The Townland contains 382 acres of which 82 acres are uncultivated; a tolerably good road passes through the centre of the T. Land, leading from Blessington to Lacken. The former which is the Market town, is two miles distant.

Kilbeg

5

Coill beag, small wood. Pronounced by the inhabitants Kylebeg.

Kilbeg -- J.O'D.
Kilbeg -- By. Surveyor's Sketch
-- Do. -- -- Wm. Merrey Blessington
-- Do. -- -- J. Mooney Blessington
Kylebeg -- J. Rickards C.C.
Kilbeg -- Allens Map of Wicklow, May 1834
Kilbeg -- Assessment list 1850
Killebeg -- Down Survey
Kilbeagg -- Old list

It is situated in the Ph. of Kilbeg, Barony of Lower Talbotstown and Co. of Wicklow. It is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the T. land of Lacken in this Parish; on the S. by the Ph. of Granabeg & on the E. by the Townland of Ballyneculthagh in this Ph.

Proprietor L. Brady of Co. Clare Esqr. Agent, Mr. Ebbs, Rathmore. Contains 2108 acres let in farms from 1 to 15 acres, general rent 10/- per acre including the liberty of mountain pasture of which there are 326 acres in the T. land; it is well watered by streams from the high ground; excellent Turf is obtained from Whelprock hill & Lacken Bog and good Marl is also obtained from the latter in abundance; the road from Blessington to Ballynastocken &c. passes along its Western boundary, distance to Blessington 4½ miles.

Lacken (5, 10)

6

Leacan, hill-side.

Lacken (contd.)

Compare, an?

Lacken (Lacken?)	-- T.O'C.
Lacken	-- By. Sketch
--Do.--	-- Wm. Merrey Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Mooney, Blessington
--Do.--	-- J. Rickards C.C.
--Do.--	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow, May 1834
--Do.--	-- Assessment list 1800
Lackin towne Land	-- Down Survey
Lacken	-- Old list

It is situated in Parish of Kilbeg, Barony of Lr. Talbotstown and Co. Wicklow; it is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the T. land of Shraughan in the Ph. & by the Ph. of Boystown; on the S. by the Parish of Granabeg & on the E. by the Townland of Kilbeg in this Ph.

The Property of Baron Joy Q.C. Agent H. Joy Esqr. Belfast; it contains 1541 acres of which there are 822 acres uncultivated including 290 acres of excellent Bog where abundance of good Marl is found. The Townland is divided into 4 parts, each of which is occupied by 4 Leases at a rent of £64; it is well watered by rivulets from the Upper ground. The road from Blessington to Ballynastocken &c. &c. passes through the Village of Lacken which is situated in the centre of the Townland and is 3½ miles from Blessington. 7

Shraughan

8

Srután, a brook. Locally explained, as signifying "dirty stream."

Sroughan	-- J.O'D.
Sraughan	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch
---Do.---	-- Wm. Merrey, Blessington
---Do.---	-- J. Mooney, Blessington
Shroughan	-- J. Rickards C.C.
Sraughan	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow May 1834.
Srahan	-- Assessment list 1800
Sruffhane	-- Down Survey
Sraghan	-- Old list

It is situated in the Ph. of Kilbeg, Barony of Lr. Talbotstown & Co. of Wicklow; it is bounded on the N. by the Ph. of Blessington; on the W. by the Townland of Corrig in this Ph.; on the S. by the Ph. of Boystown & on the E. by the Townland of Lacken in this Parish.

Shraughan (contd.)

The Property of L. Brady of Co. Clare Esqr. Agent Mr. Ebbs, Rathmore; it contains 497 acres of which 183 acres are uncultivated & serve for grazing sheep; the general size of Farms is from 10 to 50 acres; Rent 13/- to 18/- per acre. The Townland is divided into what are termed by the tenants 1st & 2nd Shraughan; the road from Blessington to Lacken passes through its centre, the distance to the former, which is the nearest market Town, is $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Ballynoulthagh

9

Baile na n-Clitach, villa ^{Ulltoniorum} ~~Ulltoniorum~~ town of the Ulstermen.

Ballynultagh	-- J.O'D.
Ballynoulthagh	-- James Lowry
-----Do.-----	-- W. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- W. Walsh, Do.

The N.ern extremity of the Townland of the same name. Merely a few (about 5) houses near each other, the only habitations in the Townland, the inhabitants are the tenants, (4 in number), who hold the Townland. See Ballynoulthagh, p.1.

Ballynastocken Brook

20

Baile na stacán, stake-town.

Ballynastockan	-- J.O'D.
Ballinastockan Ac. (so called. Wm W.M.)	---T.O'C.
Ballynastocken Brook	-- James Lowry Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----Do.---	-- Michael Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----Do.---	-- Henry Walsh, Lacken
Ballinastocken	-- Assessment list 1800

It forms the Southern Boundary of the Townland of Lacken, Ph. Kilbeg & the By^W. between that Parish & Grana-beg.

This is a considerable mountain stream; from its source until it forms the By. of Lacken, a distance of $\frac{1}{2}$ one and one fourth of a mile, it is called the Cock Brook; from the numbers of that Species of Game found on its banks in the season, its course is S.ward & very much curved. See Cock Brook, p. 18.

Black Hill

11

Black hill	-- T.O'C.
Black Hill	-- James Lowry B.noulthagh
-----Do.---	-- W. Walsh, Lacken

Black Hill (contd.)

Black Hill

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Parish of Kilbeg & Townland of Kilbeg. A considerable Hill whose summit is 1605 feet above low water & is covered with Heath; excellent Turf are brought from it by the tenants.

Blackmoor Hill

12

Blackmoor hill

-- T.O'C.

Blackmore hill

-- M. Walsh, Lacken

-----Do.-----

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Blackmoor Hill

-- Allen's Map of Wicklow,
May 1834.

The Boundary between the parishes of Blessington & Kilbeg passes along its summit; the Townlands of Carrig, Shraughan & Lacken in the latter, occupy its Southern side. A considerable hill covered on the upper parts with Heath & Furze, commands a very extensive & pleasing view. Height above low water 1464 feet.

Builehemishbui Brook

13

Búille Sheúmais bhuidhe, James Boy's Dairy or milking place.

Baleyhemishboy

-- J.O'D.

Builehemishbui Brook

-- James Lowry B.noulthagh

-----Do.-----

-- M. Walsh, Lacken

-----Do.-----

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

E. side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh Ph. Kilbeg. A considerable mountain stream formed by the junction of Glanavada and Glanacapul Brooks; its course is N.ward and very rough.

Carriganee

14

Carraig an fhiad, rock of the deer.

Carriganee

-- J.O'D.

Carriganee

-- James Lowry B.noulthagh

-----Do.-----

-- M. Walsh, Lacken

-----Do.-----

-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Townland of Ballynoulthagh Parish of Kilbeg. A rocky slope rising on the W. side of the first half mile of Lugachulleen Brook.

Carrig Rock

15

Carraig, a Rock.

Carrig Rock	-- Mr. Clarke Shraughan
-----Do.-----	-- Mr. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken
Carrig	-- Assessment list 1800

On the N. side of the road from Blessington to Lacken & in the E. side of the Townland of Carrig. A large mass of rock from which it is said the Townland derives its name.

Cleevawn Lough

16

Mulla' cliomáin, hill of the basket.

Cleevaun &c.	-- J.O'D.
Cleevan Lough	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

N. Eastern extremity of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh Ph. Kilbeg.

It is $4\frac{1}{2}$ acres in size, is of a very singular appearance having no apparent supply nor yet any issue that is to be seen; it is said to be of a very great depth in some parts; it is at the foot of an almost perpendicular precipice, the top of which is called Mullaghecleevan & is 2783 ft. above low water; the only issue from this Lough is the Dealbog brook which runs under ground for the first 15 chains from the Lough; the sound of the water is heard 17 from above as if it were that of some distant cataract.

Cock Brook

18

Cock Brook	-- T.O'C.
Cock Brook	-- James Lowry B. noulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

This stream forms the S. boundary of the Parish of Kilbeg from the S. ern base of Blackhill till it joins the Kings River.

A considerable mountain stream; it has its rise above the Black hill & runs a distance of 4 miles; it is successively called Cock Brook, Ballynastocken Brook and Cockbrook; the intermediate span called B. nastocken Brook commences $1\frac{1}{4}$ mile from its source & continues for two miles; great numbers of woodcock are found along its banks for the first mile from the source.

Crookan ar cleugh

19

Cnoc na g-cearc, hill of the hens (grouse). Cnocán na gcoilleach, hillock of the cocks (heaths cocks).

Crookanacleugh	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
Crookanarcleugh	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
Crookanarcleugh	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

In the Townland of Ballynoulthagh between Glanacapul Brook & Tent Brook. A regularly formed hill covered with Heath & said to be well stocked with Game.

Crook nan oo

20

Cnoc na n-ob, hill of the eggs.

Crooknanoo	-- J.O'D.
Crooknanoo	-- James Lowry Ballynoulthagh
Crooknanob	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

It is between Whitebog Brook & Parkbawn Brook in the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A hill covered with Heath & stones said to be well stocked with Game.

Dealbog Brook

21

Deal-bog. J.O'D.

Dalebog Brook (Deal pronounced Dale by the Irish)	-- T.O'C.
Dealbog Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Formed by the junction of the Tent Brook and Tramonghar Brook in the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A considerable mountain stream.

Glenacapul Brook

22

Gleann a chapuill, Glen or valley of the ~~hans~~ horse.

Glennacapple &c.	-- J.O'D.
Glanacapul	-- T.O'C.
Glanacapul Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

South side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A small mountain stream running only about 30 chains when it joins Parkbawn Brook.

Glan a Vada Brook

23

Gleann a mhadaigh, Glen or valley of the dog.

Glenavada	-- J.O'D.
Glanavada Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

Near the centre of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A large mountain stream formed by the Whitebog Brook and another stream; its course is curved and extremely rough.

Kings River

24

King's River	-- T.O'C.
Kings River	-- Mr. Clarke Shraughan
	M. Walsh, Lacken
	H. Walsh, Lacken

A considerable River about a chain in breadth near its junction with the Liffey which takes place about 10 chains after it leaves the Ph. of Kilbeg; numbers of Trout are caught in it, in the proper seasons.

Lug a chulleen Brook

25

Log a chuillinn, hollow of the holly.

Lugaculleen do.	-- T.O'C.
Lugachulleen Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

It has its rise in the S.E. extremity of Ballynoulthagh Townland & about a half a mile from its source it becomes the boundary between the Phs. of Kilbeg & Blessington. A large mountain stream where there are some good Trout; the banks are constantly visited by the Woodcock in his season.

Mullagheevawn

26

Mullaó cliomáin (cliabain), hill of the basket or cradle.

Mullagheevawn	-- J.O'D.
Mullacleevawn	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
Mullagheevawn	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

The Boundary between the Parish of Kilbeg, on the N. & those of Granabeg & Derralossary, on the S.; passes along its top; at the junction of the three parishes; there is a Trig. point called Mullagh. It is one of the highest mountains in the Co. Wicklow being 2763 ft. above low water.

Mullaghcleevawn (contd.)

Parkbawn Brook

27

Páirc bán, white park.

Parkbawn Brook	-- T.O'C.
Parkbawn Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

S. end of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A small mountain stream running scarcely a mile when it joins Glanacapul Brook.

Priest's Bridge

28

Priests Bridge	-- Mr. Clark Shraughan
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

On the Boundary in the S.W.ern extremity of the Townland of Lacken. A small rustic Wooden Bridge built for the convenience of the Parish Priest. There is no bridge today, 13th January 1839, here, & a stick crosses the river.

Sorrel Hill

29

Sorrel Hill	-- T.O'C.
Sorrel Hill	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow, May 1834

The Boundary between the Parishes of Kilbeg, on the S.; and Blessington, on the N.; passes over its top. A considerable mountain covered with Heath; its summit is elevated 1975 feet above low water.

Templeboodin

30

Teampull Buidain, Boydan's Church.

Templeboodin	-- J.O'D.
Templeboodin	-- Ml. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- Henry Walsh, Lacken
Templeboothin	-- Allen's Map of Wicklow May 1834
Templeboden	-- Old list

Templeboodin (contd.)

Townland of Lacken. It is one of the 4 parts into which the Townland of Lacken is divided; there is an ancient Burying Ground in it, where, it is said, there once stood a church, no remains of which, however, are now to be seen. There is a portion of a wall which belonged to some old edifice, here.

Tent Brook

31

Tent Brook	-- T.O'C.
Tent Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
----Do.----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
----Do.----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken

W. side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A small mountain stream running only one fourth of a mile from its source when it joins Tramonghar Brook.

The Lodge

32

The Lodge	-- T.O'C.
THE Lodge	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
---Do.---	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
---Do.---	-- H. Walsh, Do.

Townland of Kilbeg. A neat House (the Property of Mr. Brady) with about 30 acres of Pleasure ground; it is kept by a Game keeper & let for the shooting season to Gentlemen, for which purpose it was built convenient to the mountains. The Woodcock is often heard from the windows of the house.

Tramonghar Brook

33

Srúí Monacáin, Monaghan's stream. Traig, shere, strand must be wrong. (I think this should be Srumonaghaz. J.O'D.).

Tramonghar Brook	-- James Lowry, Ballynoulthagh
-----Do.-----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

W. side of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A very small mountain stream running only 10 chains from its source when it joins the ~~Tent~~ Brook.

Whelp Rock

34

Whelp Rock	-- Mr. Clark, Shraughan
----Do.----	-- M. Walsh, Lacken
----Do.----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

Whelp Rock (contd.)

W. side of Kilbeg Townland. The W. & N.W. sides of the base of Black hill are called by this name; the surface presents nothing to the eye but broken fragments of Granite mixed with some ferns.

Whitebog Brook

35

Whitebog Brook	-- T.O'C.
Whitebog Brook	-- James Lowry
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.

S. end of the Townland of Ballynoulthagh. A considerable mountain stream issuing from Cleevawn Lough & having the first 15 chains of its course considerably under ground; the sound of the stream is heard from above as if it were a distant water fall.

Lacken Village

36

Lacken Village	-- J.O'D.
Lacken Village	-- H. Walsh, Lacken
-----Do.-----	-- H. Walsh, Do.
-----Do.-----	-- Mr. Clark, Shraughan

Near the centre of the Townland of Lacken.

It contains about 50 Houses very irregularly built & generally filthy; there is a Chapel (R.C.) in the Village, the only place of worship in the Parish of Kilbeg; it contains about 300 Litters; there is also a school house where about 60 or 80 children attend & are taught the common course of a country education; the teacher is supported by the children; the Village is supplied with water from a stream which passes through it having its rise about three fourths of a mile above the village; the inhabitants hold less or more land with the privilege of mountain pasture for a few sheep; they manufacture ^{all} their woollen clothes; they feed on little more than potatoes & Milk.

37

FIELD NAME BOOK

for

BOYSTOWN

By. Lower Talbotstown

Co. Wicklow

INDEX

Page

Annalacka Bridge	31
Annacorney	85
Ballynagee	35
Ballinagee Bridge	31
Ballyknocken	13
Ballystocken	95
Bannaught	59
Blackditches lower	77
----Do.----- Upper	73
Gloshabue Bridge	33
Garraknock	25
Garraknock Bridge	31
Glenbride	17
Gransbeg Lower	43
---Do.--- Upper	51
Knockalt Lower	9
---Do.--- Upper	1
Knockalt Bridge	33
Togher	69
Vallymount (alias Cross)	91
Carrigacurra	87

J. Hen. Iyster, Lieut. R. Engr.

June 30/38

George A. Bennett, L. R. E.

27 Feby '38

Knockalt Upper (16)

1

Choc ailt, hill of the precipice.

Knockalt &c.	-- T.O'C.
Knockalt Upper	-- By. Survey's. Sketch Map
Upper Knockalt	-- Old List
Knockault	-- Patrick Lawler
----Do.----	-- Meres Man
	James Rickard, C.E.
----Do.----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
Knockalt (Upper)	-- Jno. Giltrap
Knockalt	-- Assessment list 1800

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. Bounded on the North by Garra- 2 knock; on the South by Hollywood Ph.; on the East by Garraknock and on the West by Knockalt Lower.

Contains 162 acres 3 roods 2 pers. of which about 64 are arable & 98 Bog; this belongs to the See of Dublin, was purchased by Lady Vaviscour who now resides in England and has it rented to 4 tenants who reside on it at the rate of £4. 14s. 10d. for every 3 Collups (i.e.) for as much pasture as every 3 cows can be grazed on. The County Cess is at 5/- per Collup. The Tenants have it these 20 years past; their Leases was (were?) only 21 years. Mr. John Jones Baltinglass is the Agent, the 3
Houses are all stone & low thatched cabbins. The Tenants manure the cultivated part with lime. Ballymore Bustace & Blessington are the next market Towns about seven miles distant. Lime stone is brought from the former Town. Pettitt Sessions held at Blessington every second Saturday. The Road from Ballymore Bustace to Wicklow passes through it, and about the middle of it on the North side a granite quarry. There is no mountain in this Tald. The arable part is of the worst quality & produces bad crops. There is about 10 acres of a rocky uncultivated spot in the extremex South West corner.

Knockalt Lower (16)

9

Knockalt Lower	-- Boundary Surveyor's Sketch Map
Lower Knockalt	-- Old list
Knockault Lower	-- Patrick Lawler
-----Do.-----	-- James Rickard, C.C.
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
Knockalt (Lower)	-- Jno Giltrap

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. Bounded on the North by Garra- 10 knock; on the South by Hollywood Parish; on the East by Knockalt Upper, and on the West by Bannaght.

Knockalt Lower (contd.)

Contains 226 acres 3 roods 19 pers. of which about 94 are arable & the remainder Bog. The property of Lady Vaviscour who resides in England & purchased it from the See of Dublin, has it let to 5 f Tenants at the rate of 24. 14s. 10d. for the grazing of every 3 Collups. The County Cess is at 5/- per Collup. The arable part is of a very bad quality & produces bad crops. Lime is much 11 used for manure, the stones are brought from Ballymore Eustace & burned on the ground. The road from Ballymore Eustace to Wicklow passes through it; the cultivated part is at the middle of the East side except about 25 acres that are in the extreme S.W. corner. It is bounded on the West side by "Knockalt Brook" and on the South by the Kings River. There is a small school House at the North end of the cultivated part a little West of the pass leading to & same, from the road from Blessington to Wicklow, which runs along the North side; at the West side where the Road from Ballymore Eustace to Wicklow, crosses Knockalt Brook, is a bridge called "Knockalt 12 Bridge" (It would be as well to state the number of arches in Knockalt Bridge. W.M.). The Bog part is both wet & spongy. There is no mountain on it.

Ballyknocken

13

Baile cnocáin, Town of the hillock.

Ballyknocken	-- Inq. temp. Jac. I.
Ballyknocken	-- T.O'C.
Ballinknockin	-- Down Survey
Ballyknocken	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map
----Do.-----	-- Old list
Ballynosken	-- Patrick Lawler
----Do.-----	-- James Rickard
----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
----Do.-----	-- Jno. Gilttrap
Ballynocken	-- Assessment list 1800

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbotts- 14 town, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the N. by the Townland of Ballystocken; on the E. by Glenbride and Carraknock Td.; on the S. by Carrigcurra Tld. and on the W. by Townland of Ballinashoun.

Contains 1112 acres 2 roods 6 pers. of which there are about 124 acres of bog, and about 711 acres of uncultivated mountain ground. It is Bishop land of the See of Dublin; ~~Wick~~ Man Heir of the late Baron Joy. Agent Fredk. Joy, Belfast Esq. It is held by 30 landholders; Tenants at will at the ~~xxx~~ Annual rent of £165. The ~~bottom~~ bottom grounds and bogs contain a rich blue marl; are excellent manure. The cultivated part is a bad quality of

Ballyknocken (contd.)

of land. It is very rocky & yields light crops of oats, and potatoes. The mountain ground affords a coarse pasture for sheep &c. There is a small village near the Western boundary, the same name as the Townland & (Ballyknocken) through which a bye-road passes; there is also another bye road runs on West side of Ballyknocken Village; the roads are very bad, almost impassable; they are prepared with granite stones. There is a fine Granite Quarry at East side of the Village; it is considered the best in this part of the Kingdom and has been in use for the last 14 years. The proprietor the late Baron Joy lately took that part containing the Quarry into his own possession and has it rented at £40 per Annum. The chief demand for the wrought stone is in Dublin; all ornamental building stone required for many miles round are got here. At present there are about 160 men employed in the quarry. Labourers wages from 6 to 7s. per week. Smiths and stone cutters have from 15 to 26/- per week. There is a small stream rises in Oghill Mountain called Troman Brook, it runs N.N.W. and joins Oghill Brook which forms the Northern boundary of this Townland.

Glenbride

Gleann Bhríde, Bridget's Glen or valley.

Glenbride	-- Inq. temp. Jac. I.
---Do.---	-- Down Survey
Glenbride	-- T.O'C.
Glenbride	-- Boundary Surveyor's Sketch Map
---Do.---	-- Old list
---Do.---	-- Patrick Lawler
	Weres man
---Do.---	-- James Rickard, C.C.
---Do.---	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
---Do.---	-- Jno. Giltrap, Applotter
---Do.---	-- Assessment list 1800

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg; Bounded on the North by the Parish of Kilbride; on the South by the Tnld. of Ballinagee; on the East by the same, and on the West by the Tnlds. of Garranknock, Ballyknocken & Ballystocken.

Contains 2770 acres 1 rood 30 pers. of which about 18 acres are Bog, 73 acres cultivated & the remainder uncultivated Mountain; it is Bishop land & belongs to the See of Dublin; was purchased by the Late Baron Joy, Dublin & let by him to 6 Tenants, who pay him the yearly rent of £260 for the whole. The Bog part is in the extreme South corner, and the cultivated part adjoining same; it is of the worst quality & produces bad crops. The North side is all Mountain, overgrown with Heath & bad pasture for cattle, though the tenants have it stocked mostly with sheep. There is no road through it, not even through the cultivated part, there is an old road or pass from Garra-knock Tnld. to the West side of the cultivated part, by which the Tenants pass to & from Market. There are two main streams whose sources are near the North end, one at the extreme N.E. corner & the other at the extreme N.W. corner both meet near the middle, and a little Southward join another from the East, which runs in a deep precipice called & "Glosnagullam (Glasnagollum) Brook;" 35 chains 20 more Southward, they join another stream which runs in the meering between Glenbride & Ballinagee from the East side, this stream is called "Caulan" Brook; they run in a Southerly direction to where they join the "Kings River" at the extreme South corner. There is a stream along part of the West side, called "Glosnadhead Brook," which joins the latter at the extreme South corner, & from this junction it is called the "Kings River." The Mountain part North of "Glosnagullam Brook" is called "Shraughafoddagh" & that the South side "Shraughagarragh". Frederick Joy Esq. Belfast is Agent of this Tnld. The County Cess is £6 per year, the Tenants have no leases, they are all Roman Catholics. Ballymore Eustace & Blessington are 21 the nearest Market Towns each are about seven miles distant. Pettitt Sessions held in Blessington every second Saturday. This Townld. is Tythe free. Part of "Mullaghelevawn" Mountain is in the extreme N.E. corner of the Townland.

Glenbride (contd.)

Garra-knock (10, 16)

25

Garraid an énoic, i.e. Garden of the hill.

Garryknock	-- J.O'D.
Garra-knock	-- Hy. Surveyor's Sketch Map
Gorryknock	-- Patrick Lawler
Garrynock	-- James Rickard, C.C.
---Do.---	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
Garry Knock	-- Jno. Giltrap
---Do.---	-- Old list
---Do.---	-- Assessment list 1800

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Gransbeg. Bounded on the North by Ballyknocken; on the South by Hollywood Ph.; on the East by Glenbride & Ballinagee Tnlds. & on the West by Ballyknocken, Togher, Knockalt & Lower & Knockalt Upper Townlds. 26

Contains 1263 acres 2 roods 35 pers. of which about 98 acres are cultivated, 65 acres Bog & 1100 Mountain & uncultivated. This Tnld. belongs to the See of Dublin;

Garrahnock (contd.)

was purchased by the Late Baron Joy, Dublin & is now in the Possession of his Heirs or Assigns, who receive the yearly rent of £66 from the 6 Tenants who hold it. They have no leases & Frederick Joy Esq. Belfast is the Agent. The 27 County Cess of this Tald. is £3 yearly. It is Tythe free; Ballymore Eustace & Blessington are the next market Towns about seven miles to each. Petitt Sessions in Blessington every second Saturday. Fuel got on the ground. There are two Public roads through it, one near the South end in a S.W. direction from Ballymore Eustace to Wicklow & near the East end of it a Granite Quarry on the North side; the other from Blessington, (a Bye Road) in a North West direction, and from it near the West end, an old road branches off in a N.E. direction to a cultivated part at the middle of the East side, where it enters Glenbride Townld. The other part cultivated near the South side is of a bad quality & produces bad crops. The part along the South side is very Rocky & of the worst quality, the 26 North side is all overgrown with Heath, and bad pasture for sheep or Cattle. There is a stream whose source is near the N.W. corner, & runs in a S.E. direction to the Kings River. There are two Bridges on the Road, which runs through the South part, one where it crosses the aforesd. stream at the meering of Knockalt Upper called "Garrahnock Bridge", the other at the East end where it crosses the King's river, called "Ballinagee Bridge". There are Lime Kilns built on the cultivated parts. The Houses are all stone & all low thatched cabins. The Mountain part of this Townld. has no name. The Inhabitants are all Roman Catholics. The King's River runs along the South side and Glesnadhead River or Brook along 29 the N.East side, its source is in the meering near the extreme North corner, it runs along the meering & joins the King's River at the extreme East corner, where both become one. The Limestone is brought from Ballymore Eustace (7 miles), burned on the ground, and used for manure.

Annalacka Bridge

31

At na leice, ford of the flagstones.

Annalecka Br.	-- J.O'D.
Annalacka Bridge	-- Patk. Lawler
Annalacka Bridge	-- James Rickard, C.C.

On the South side of the Townland of Ballinagee. A small Bridge with one arch, on the new road from Ballymore Eustace to Wicklow over a small Brook, running South to King's River.

Ballinagee Bridge

Baile na gaoithe, town of the wind.

Ballinagee Br. X	-- J.O'D.
Ballinagee Bridge	-- Patk. Lawler
Ballinagee Bridge	-- James Rickard, C.C.

On the S.East side of the Townland of Ballinagee and S.West side of the Townland of Garraknock. A small Bridge with one arch on the new road from Ballymore Bustace to Wicklow, crossing the Kings River in South direction.

Garraknock Bridge

Garryknock	-- J.O'D.
Garraknock Bridge	-- Patk. Lawler
Garraknock Bridge	-- James Rickard, C.C.

On the S.East side of the Townland of Garraknock. A small Bridge with one arch on the new road from Ballymore Bustace to Wicklow over a small stream running South to Kings River.

Gloshabue Bridge

33

Glaise buide, yellow brook or streamlet.

Glashaboy (local)
Gloshabue Bridge	-- Patk. Lawler
Gloshabue Bridge	-- James Rickard, C.C.

On the S.West side of the Townland of Ballinagee. A small Bridge with one arch on the new road from Ballymore Bustace to Wicklow, over a small Brook running South to the Kings River.

Knockalt Bridge

Knockalt Bridge	-- Patk. Lawler
Knockalt Bridge	-- James Rickard, C.C.

On the S.East side of the Townland of Knockalt Lower. A small Bridge with one arch on the new road from Ballymore Bustace to Wicklow over a small Brook running South to Kings River.

Ballynagee (16, 17)

35

Baile na gaoithe, town of the wind.

Ballinagee	-- J.O'D.
Ballynaghee	-- old list
Ballinagee	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map

Ballynagee (contd.)

Ballinagee	-- James Rickard, C.C.
-----Do.-----	-- James Patrick Lawler, Meres Man
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
-----Do.-----	-- Jno. Giltrap
Ballinaghee	-- Assessment list 1800

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. Bounded on the North by Glenbride; on the South by Hollywood Ph.; on the East by Derralossary Ph. and on the West by Glenbride & Garran-knock Townlands. 36

Contains 2934 acres 2 roods 34 pers. of which 32 acres are Bog, 73 acres cultivated & the remainder uncultivated Mountain. It is Bishop Land, belongs to the See of Dublin, was purchased by the late Baron Joy, Dublin, who let it to the two residing Tenants at £40 per Annum without Leases. Frederick Joy Esq. Belfast is Agent to the Deceased's Heir. The cultivated part is in the South West corner, and of a very bad quality and produces bad crops, the Mountain part is overgrown with Heath & very Rocky near the S.W. corner. There are 3 streams whose sources are near the East side & run in a S.W. direction to where they join near the S.E. corner & continue same direction to where it enters the King's River at the South side. This part from their junction to the King's River is called "Annalacka Brook." It is Bounded on the South East side by "Gloshabue Brook" which has its source near the S.E. corner and on the South & West by the King's River, also by "Gaulen-Brook" at the N.W. side. There is a road through the South end from Ballymore Eustace to Wicklow; at the West end of this Road is "Ballinagee Bridge", at the middle "Annalacka Bridge" where it crosses "Annalacka Brook" and at the East side "Gloshabue Bridge". That part of the Mountain near the S.W. corner is called "Carricknagunneev" or the "Rabbits Rock," the extreme North corner runs into a narrow point at "Mullagh-clevawn Mountain." The source of "Gloshagullum Brook" (described in Glenbride Told. page 20) is near the North corner. There are two Granite Quarries on North side of the Road near the West side end. 37

Granabeg Lower

43

Greanach, a gravelly place.

Granabeg (recte Granaghbeg)	-- J.O'D.
Granagh beg	-- Down Survey
Granabeg Lower	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map
-----Do.-----	-- Old list

Granhag Lower (contd.)

Granhag Lower	-- Patrick Lawler, Heres Man
-----Do.-----	-- James Rickard, C.C.
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
Granhag	-- Jno. Giltrap
---Do.---	-- Assessment list 1860

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granhag. It is bounded on the N.E. by the Td. of Bannaught; on the N. by Togher; on the S.E. by Hollywood Ph. & on the S.W. & W. by Granhag Upper. 44

Contains 270 acres 1 rood 11 pers. of which there are about 155 acres of uncultivated mountain ground; it is Bishop land of the See of Dublin, Mid: Man, Lady Vavisoar, England. Agent Mr. John Jones near Baltinglass. Tenants hold by lease of 20 years which will expire on Novr. next (1838). It is in five farms at the yearly rent of £45. 10s. 3d. on the Townland. The inhabitants get turf on the land but are not now allowed to sell any. The cultivated ground is a bad quality of land; it is rocky and yields nothing but light crops of oats & potatoes; there is a bye road passes through South end and the Kings River forms its Southern boundary; It is about six miles from the Market Towns of Rallymore and Blessington. 45

Granhag Upper

51

Grainne beag, little Grain.

Granhag Upper	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map
-----Do.-----	-- Patrick Lawler
-----Do.-----	-- James Rickard, C.C.
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
-----Do.-----	-- Jno. Giltrap
-----Do.-----	-- Old list

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granhag. It is bounded on the N.E. and E. by Granhag Lower Td.; on the S. by Hollywood Ph.; on the S.W. by Hollywood Ph. & on the N.W. by the Townland of Togher. 52

Contains 242 acres 9 pers. of which there are about 67 acres of bog and about 73 acres of waste uncultivated mountain ground; it is Bishop land of the See of Dublin, Mid: Man, Lady Vavisoar England. Agent Mr. John Jones near Baltinglass. It is let in six farms; Rent about £40 per Annum on the Townland. The tenants hold by lease of 20 years which are now nearly expired. The inhabitants make their own turf but are not allowed to sell any. There are two bye-roads run through but they are very bad & rough; they are prepared with Granite; the King's River forms its Southern boundary. The cultivated part of this Townland is a bad quality of land being rocky & yielding nothing but light crops of oats & potatoes. It is six miles from the Market town of Ballymore and Blessington. 53

Granabeg Upper (contd.)

Bannaught (16)

59

Banóg, a green field.

(compare) Bawnoge	-- T.O'C.
Bannaught	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map
Bhawnogue	-- Patrick Lawler, Meres man
---Do.---	-- Old list
Bhawnoge	-- James Rickard, C.C.
---Do.---	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
Bawnogue	-- Jno. Giltrap
Bhawnogue	-- Assessment list 1800

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the N. by Togher Td.; on the E. by the Td. of Knockalt Lower; on the W. by Td. of Granabeg Lower & on the S. by Do. 60

Contains 273 acres 16 pers. of which there are about 200 acres of uncultivated Mountain which yields a rough pasture for sheep &c. It is Bishop land of the See of Dublin, Mid. Man, Lady Vaxisour, England. Tenants hold by lease of 20 years which will expire in November 1838. It is let in two farms at the yearly rent of £21. 14s. The portion of ground that is cultivated is of a bad quality and yields nothing but light crops of oats and potatoes. 62

The road from Ballymore Sustace to Wicklow forms its Northern boundary and the King's River forms a small part of its extreme Southern Boundary. Its nearest market Town is Ballymore which is about 6 six and a half miles from it. The Agent is Mr. John Jones near Blessington.

Togher

69

Tócar, a causeway.

Togher	-- T.O'C.
Togher	-- Assessment list 1800
Togher	-- Boundary Surveyor's Sketch Map
---Do.---	-- Old list
---Do.---	-- Patrick Lawler, Meresman
---Do.---	-- James Rickard, C.C.
---Do.---	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher

Togher (contd.)

Togher

-- Jno. Giltrap

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the N. by Carrigcurra Td.; on the E. by Garraknock Td.; on the S.E. by the Townlands of Bannaught, Granabeg Lower & Granabeg Upper; on the S.W. by Hollywood Ph. & on the W. by the Tds. of Annacarney & Blackditches Upper. 70

Contains 648 acres 2 rods 4 pers. of which there are about 552 acres of uncultivated mountain ground which yields a rough pasture for sheep &c. It is Bishop land of the See of Dublin, Mid. Man Lee & Ratliffe. It is held by lease of 20 years which will be expired in November 1838. It is let in four farms at the yearly rent of £50. on the Townland. This Townland is nearly all mountain ground 71 and the portion that is cultivated is very bad and full of rocks & large Granite stones; it yields light crops of oats & potatoes. The road from Ballymore to Wicklow passes through it, E. & W. ward & the small village of Togher is situate in the W. side on N. of road. It is about five and a half miles from the Market Towns of Ballymore & Blessington.

Blackditches Upper (10)

73

Blackditches)
Blackditches)	-- Inq. temp. Jac. I.
Blackditches &c.	-- T.O'C.
Blackditches Upper	-- Boundary Surveyor's Sketch Map
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
-----Do.-----	-- Jno. Giltrap
Blackditches	-- Assessment list 1800
-----Do.----- Upper	-- Old list

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the E. by Togher Td.; on the S. by the Ph. of Hollywood; on the N. by Annacarney Td. & on the W. by Blackditches Lower Townland. 74

Contains 157 acres 3 rods 35 pers. of which there are about 60 acres of uncultivated mountain ground and about 9 acres of bog. It is Bishop Land of the See of Dublin, Mid. Man Lee & Ratliffe. Agent Mr. John Jones near Balinglass. It is held by lease of 20 years which will expire in November 1838. The yearly Rent is 31 Pounds Irish. It is let in six farms. The cultivated portion of this Townland is of a very bad quality yielding nothing but 75 light crops of Oats & potatoes; the inhabitants make their own turf. There is a bye-road passes through W. side.

Blackditches Upper (contd.)

There is a small Rath near the Northern Boundary. It is about five miles from the Market town of Ballymore.

Blackditches Lower

77

Blackditches Lower	-- Ry. Surveyor's Sketch Map
-----Do.-----	-- Patrick Lawler, Meres Man
-----Do.-----	-- James Rickard, C.C.
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
-----Do.-----	-- Jno. Giltrap
-----Do.-----	-- Old list

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbotts- 78
town, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the East by Blackditches Upper Td.; on the S. by Hollywood Ph.; on the
W. by Boystown Ph. & on the N.E. by the Townlands of Annacarney & Vallemount Cross.

Contains 153 acres 1 rood 34 pers. of which there are about 80 acres of uncultivated Mountain ground. It is Bishop Land of the See of Dublin, Mid. Men Lee and Ratliffe.
Agent Mr. John Jones near Baltinglass. It is held by lease of 20 years which will expire in November 1838. The yearly rent is £42 Irish. It is let in three farms. The cultivated portion of this Townland is very bad being mostly reclaimed ground. It yields nothing but potatoes & light crops of Oats. A bye road passes across E. angle.
It is about five miles from the Market Town of Ballymore.

Annacarney (10)

85

At na cCearnach, Ford of the Kearneys.

Annacarney	-- J.O'D.
Anacarney	-- T.O'C.
Annacarney	-- Boundary Surveyor's Sketch Map
----Do.----	-- Patrick Lawler, Meres Man
----Do.----	-- James Rickard, C.C.
----Do.----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
----Do.----	-- Old list
----Do.----	-- Jno. Giltrap
Annacarney	-- Assessment list 1800

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbotts- 86
town, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the E. by Carrigcurra Td.; on the S.E. by Togher Td.; on the S.W.
and N.W. by the Tds. of Blackditches Upper, Blackditches & Vallemount Cross.

Contains 167 acres 3 roods 1 per. of which there are about 5 acres of bog & about --- acres of uncultivated

Annacarney (contd.)

Mountain ground. Mid: Men, Lee, Ratliffe & others who are at law about the property. Agent Mr. John Jones near Baltinglass. The cultivated land is bad; it is rocky & yields very poor crops. It is held by leases of 19 years & let in farms from seven to twenty three acres at 9/- per acre. It is five miles from the Market Towns of Ballymore and Blessington. The road from Ballymore to Wicklow passes through it.

Carrigcurra

87

Carraig a corra. Carraig a curraig. Rock of the moor.

Carrigcork	-- Inq. Temp. Car. I.
Carrigacurra	-- J.O'D.
Carrigacurra	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map
Carrigacurra	-- J. Johnson, P.P.
Carrigacurragh	-- P. Donlan
Carrigacurra	-- Assessment list 1800
Carricke Curragh	-- Down Survey
Carriggacurra Upper & Lower	-- Old list

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the N. by the Td. of Ballyknocken; on the E. & S. by the Td. of Togher & on the W. & S.W. by the Townlands of Valley-mount Cross & Annacarney. 88

Contains 996 acres 1 rood 34 pers. of which there are 740 acres of uncultivated mountain ground. It is Bishop land of the See of Dublin, Mid. Men Lee & Ratliffe. Agent Mr. John Jones near Baltinglass. It is held by lease of 20 years which will expire in November 1838. It is let in twenty nine farms at the yearly rent of £80. The cultivated portion of this Townland is bad; it yields nothing but potatoes & light crops of Oats; it is very rocky & full of large granite stones. There is a small village composed of 8 or 10 houses called Quaintagh near the Southern boundary. It is about five miles from the Market Town of Ballymore Bustace. 89

Vallymount (alias Cross)

91

Valleymount	-- J.O'D.
Vallymount alias Cross	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map
-----Do.-----	-- Patrick Lawler
-----Do.-----	-- James Rickard, C.C.
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
-----Do.-----	-- Jno. Giltrap

Vallymount (alias Cross) (contd.)

Cross of Blackditches m n -- old list

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the E. by the Tds. of Carrigacurra & Annacarney; on the S.W. by Blackditches Lower; on the W. by Boystown Ph. & on the N.W. by Boystown Ph. 92

Contains 187 acres 30 pers. of which there are 22 acres of Bog. It is Bishop land of the See of Dublin; Mid. Men Lee and Ratliffe &c. at law. The farms are let from 2 to 16 acres at 9/- per acre. It is held by lease of 19 years. Agent Mr. Ball, No. 28 Clare St., Dublin. In this Townland the cultivation is better than in other parts of the Parish. The road from Ballymore to Wicklow runs along S. West boundary and the Annacarney brook on the East boundary. There is a Roman Catholic Chapel in the West corner of the Townland. It is about four miles from the Market Town of Ballymore. 93

Ballystocken (10)

95

Buaille an staeáin nó Buail na stuacan, town of the standing stones or stocks.

Ballynastockan	-- J.O'D.
Bolenascokane	-- Down Survey refce.
Bolenastokane	-- Down Survey Map
Ballystocken	-- By. Surveyor's Sketch Map
Bablinsstocken	-- Patrick Lawler, Meres Man
Ballystocken	-- James Rickard, C.C.
-----Do.-----	-- William Cosgrove, Teacher
Bally-na-Stockan	-- Jno. Giltrap

In the County of Wicklow, Barony of Lower Talbottstown, Parish of Granabeg. It is bounded on the N. by Kilbeg Ph.; on the E. by the Townlands of Kilbride & Kilbeg; on the W. by the Townlands of Lacken and Ballinahoun & on the S. by the Townland of Ballyknocken. 96

Contains 1504 acres 3 rods 26 pers. of which there are 1102 acres of uncultivated mountain ground and about 129 acres of Bog. It is Bishop land of the See of Dublin; Mid. Man, Hisr Heir of the late Baron Joy. Agent Fredk. Joy Esqre. Belfast. It is held by 18 landholders, tenants at will. The annual Rent is £150 on the Townland. The cultivated portion of this Townland is much better than the land in other parts of the Parish; it is free from rocks &c. It yields good crops of oats & potatoes. The bottom grounds & Bogs contain small portions of rich blue 97

Ballystocken (contd.)

Marl which makes an excellent manure. There is a large Bog on W. side called Salleyhole Bog from which the inhabitants get their turf. There is a byeroad runs through the Townland near the West side of which there are four 98 small villages composed of from six to ten houses each; their names are as follows going South, Kylemore, Ballystocken, Middletown & Lagnaskeagh. There is a stream it rises on E. side of the Townland in Lagnaskeagh Mountain & runs W.N.W. It is Frauchan Brook. It joins Silesham Brook which forms the Northern Boundary of this Townland.

J. Hen. Lyster, Lieut. R. Engr.,
June 30th '38.
