Jan'y 95

A letter was also read from the Veterinary Department of the Privy Council to inform the Local Authority that in consequence of the prevalence of Swine fever in Ireland it had been considered desirable to confer upon Local Authorities further powers with a view to check the spread of disease. Experience had shown that the unrestricted movement of Swine to and from Markets and Fairs was calculated to extend the disease. In these circumstances the Markets and Fairs Swine fever (Ireland) Order had been passed - copies of which were therewith enclosed. This order would come into force on the 11th February next & would prohibit the holding of Public sales of Swine in any Poor Law Union.

to which its provisions might be applied from time to time by special order, except with the licence of the local authority of such Union and subject to the conditions specified in the order. (Articles 6 and 10). Copies of the Swine Fever order. No 4, applying the provisions relating to markets and fairs, in the first instance, to the 32 Poor Law Unions mentioned in the schedule were also transmitted.

A copy of a resolution adopted by the Bonmahon Board of Guardians protesting against the assessment of the Government.

under the provisions of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1876, as being over and above the local expenditure under the Act of 1876, in that Union, was received.
