Comhairle Contae Chill Mhantáin

Wicklow County Council

County Wicklow is located in the province of Leinster, and has a population of 155,485, 9.2% growth persons as stated in the preliminary 2022 census figures on the CSO website <https://www.cso.ie/en/csolatestnews/presspages/2022/censusofpopulation2022-preliminaryresults/>

Wicklow shares its border with four other counties and has a total land area of 2,027 km². The topography of Wicklow is largely mountainous, with the Wicklow Mountains being the largest continuous upland region in Ireland. Wicklow is the 13th largest of the Republic of Ireland's 26 Counties and is the 14th largest Local Authority area in terms of population.

Wicklow County Council is the Local Government Authority for County Wicklow and is responsible for the delivery of the full range of services. Wicklow County Council seeks to enhance the county's attraction as a place in which to invest, work, and live, and takes the lead role in shaping the strategic vision of the county. It provides a diverse, multi-layered and evolving range of services to both citizens and visitors to County Wicklow, which include the provision of housing, planning, development, environmental, roads and traffic, leisure and community services. It also has an enhanced role in leading out economic and community development in the County. The Council works in partnership with other state, public and private bodies in the delivery of critical infrastructure and shared services.

Wicklow County Council has an elected body comprising of 32 elected members and employs a workforce in excess of 800 employees, currently covering 5 Municipal Districts – Bray, Greystones, Wicklow, Arklow and Baltinglass. Our employees work in a dynamic and progressive local authority which promotes training and development of our employees who are our most valuable resource.

The 2025 annual revenue budget for the local authority is approximately €168 million. The Council also continues to invest in the infrastructure of the county and through its Capital Investment Programme.

The day to day running of the Council is the responsibility of the Chief Executive and the Management Team.

Comhairle Contae Chill Mhantáin

Wicklow County Council

Assistant Chief Fire Officer

Ref: 17/2024

THE POSITION

The Council is seeking applications from suitably qualified candidates with relevant experience for the position of Assistant Chief Fire Officer.

The Council invites applications from suitably qualified persons who wish to be considered for inclusion on a panel from which permanent and temporary vacancies for the position of Assistant Chief Fire Officer (ACFO) shall be drawn.

The mission of the Fire Service in Wicklow County Council is to operationally protect and rescue persons and property from injury or damage by fire or other emergency, together with delivering a building fire safety management & inspection process for the County.

The assignment of the post will be to the Wicklow Fire Service HQ based in Bray, Co. Wicklow, covering the county as a whole as well as Retained Fire Stations. There are 10 Fire Stations located within the County. Reporting to the Senior Assistant Chief Fire Officer, the Assistant Chief Fire Officer will be required to be a team player in any of the main disciplines of the Fire Service: Operations, Prevention and Major Emergency Management. As an Assistant Chief Fire Officer, the successful candidate will have an important role in the management of staff. The Assistant Chief Fire Officer has responsibility for managing the service delivery and development of functions in the areas as delegated by the Chief Fire Officer and will have to be capable of undertaking the role of Rostered Senior Fire Officer at operational incidents, if required.

In addition to operational duties, much of an Assistant Chief Fire Officer's work is usually in the area of fire safety certification and disability access certification on building construction within Wicklow, together with licencing inspections and community fire safety. This involves ongoing engagement with building professionals and the development of a strong knowledge of the relevant codes of practice and Technical Guidance documents and relevant Regulations. Complaints are also dealt with as they arise.

The appointee will work in a dynamic and progressive local authority which provides a multiplicity of services as outlined above to the inhabitants of County Wicklow and the significant numbers of visitors to the County.

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Selection shall be by means of a competition based on interview. A panel may be formed on the basis of such interviews, from which permanent vacancies may be filled.

Wicklow County Council reserves the right to shortlist candidates in the manner it deems most appropriate. Shortlisting may be on the basis of information supplied on the application form and the likely number of vacancies to be filled. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications /experience on the application form.

The candidates shortlisted will be invited to attend for interview.

Interviews may be held in person or by online process through Microsoft Teams. The Council will not be responsible for any expenses incurred by candidates in attending for interview.

Candidates whose names are on a Panel and who satisfy the Local Authority that they possess the qualifications declared for the office and that they are otherwise suitable for appointment may, within the lifetime of the Panel, be appointed as appropriate vacancies arise.

The life of the Panel will be for one year from the date it is formed, unless otherwise directed by the Chief Executive.

Wicklow County Council will require the person to whom appointment is offered to take up the appointment within a period of not more than one month and if the person fails to take up the appointment within such period or such longer period as Wicklow County Council in its absolute discretion may determine, Wicklow County Council will not appoint him/her.

It should be noted that the terms of Paragraph 13 of Circular Letter EL 02/09 – Incentivised Scheme of Early Retirement may need to be considered in some instances. It is a condition of this scheme as set out in the Department of Finance Circular 12/2009 that retirees, under that Scheme, are debarred from applying for another position in the same employment or the same sector.

Furthermore, persons who have availed of a Redundancy Payment Scheme should note that is a condition of the Collective Agreement that persons availing of the agreement will not be eligible for re-employment in the public service by any public service body (as defined by the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Acts 2009 – 2011) for a period of 2 years from termination of the employment. Thereafter the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform will be required prior to re-employment.

Applicants will be required to declare whether they have previously availed of either of the above schemes.

In the event that an offer of employment is made, the candidate will be required to submit all relevant Educational Qualifications in order to meet the requirements above.
