Submission

I'd like to request that Tinakilly Avenue, Rathnew be zoned as a road / thoroughfare / right of way to ensure it will be retained as access to the village centre indefinitely.

Currently it is zoned for housing without any indication or differentiation of the road access which is currently existing and used as right of way access and a link to the village by the residents of the Tinakilly / Broudlough lake area (8 private homes).

This link would also serve to provide access and integrate the already planned development of the area, should it proceed.
