The Clerk's Report on the execution of Orders previously made by the Board was read to the following effect:—

The Master's Estimate of Provisions and Necessaries required for the ensuing week was examined, and Orders were duly made for the several articles specified, namely:—

40 lbs Butter
 4 gals B-milk
 40 doz Eggs
 100 lbs Beef
 60 " Mutton
 120 " Boneless Beef
 130 gals. Sweet milk
 220 4 lb. Loaves.

The Report of the Visiting Committee was read, and Orders were made thereon as follows:—

On the application of Mrs Margaret Ballause, Wardmaid in Fever Hospital, the Board decided to allow her remuneration at the rate of $2\frac{1}{6}$ a week for doing the Laundry work of the temporary nurse, Mrs DeCourcy, for a period of three weeks.

The Reports of the Master and other Officers were read, and Orders made thereon, as follows:—

The following Orders of the Local Government Board for Ireland were laid before the Board, and directions given thereon, as follows:—

The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively, to the following effect (or orders made on them respectively, as follows):—

no. 31,314

19 June 1911

Read letter from Local Government Board to state that they had sanctioned the temporary ^{employment} of Miss Nora de Courcy as nurse in the Workhouse at the rate remuneration of £1. 11. 6 a week with rations.

The Medical Officer of the Workhouse submitted letter received by him from the Supervisor of Jarvis St. Hospital relative to nurse de Courcy, in which she stated that the nurse acted very unwisely in not acquainting him of her difficulties while on duty. The reason the nurse gave her (Supervisor) for not reporting the matter was that she did not like to upset the Wardmaid to whom she attributed much of the unruly ways of the convalescent patients.

no. 31,455

19 June 1911

The Local Government Board wrote approving of the temporary employment of Sarah Kiwan as caretaker in the observation ward at the remuneration of 7/- a day with rations.

16 June 1911

Memo Redcastle McConnel & Co. submitted Whitehaven Colliery Co's certificate for coal supplied.

23 June 1911

A lengthy communication was read from the Wardmaid in Lewis Hospital in which she denied having used impertinent remarks to Mr Mc Mahon or his servant, but stated that she reprimanded Mr. Mc Mahon for shaking hands with kissing the children ^{in the 2nd ward} when they were only two days out of bed and feeling that he was warned not to go near them. Mr.

Mr. Mahon crossed the fence into the grounds as the gate was kept locked to prevent people from coming into contact with the patients.

The explanation of the Wardmaid was considered satisfactory, and the Board decided that the nurses and Wardmaid be instructed to exclude all relatives of patients, or other members of the public, from the ^{General} Hospital premises, in future, while there are patients in the Hospital.

It was ordered that Mrs. Bishop be required to pay the full average cost of maintenance of her son while under treatment in the Fever Hospital, and that Mr. Mahon contribute at the rate of $2/6$ a week, for each of his children, in the Hospital. The relief in these cases to be declared to be given by way of loan.

There came to forward a communication which they had received from Mr. Patrick Boyle relating to the contract for the disposal of the Workhouse offal. It requests that they might be furnished with the observations of the franchisee thereon.

Order: That the Local Govt. Board be informed that the franchisee did not ask for tenders for the offal on 14th inst. and they believed the letter received from Patrick Boyle offering 2/- a week was sent through vindictiveness, as he was a candidate for the office of Farm Steward when Dempsey was appointed.

As the Board found that Dempsey had given entire satisfaction since his election they considered he was best entitled to any advantage to be derived from the use of the offal, and they deemed 7/- a week a fair sum to charge him therefor.

The Infirmary nurse, Miss Bolger, wrote to apply for one month's holidays.

Order: Granted, and Nurse O'Boole who is at present acting as temporary substitute for Nurse Hogan, to be employed during Miss Bolger's absence.
