The following explanation was read from the Master, viz:- "With reference to the report of Mr. Kelly, L.G. Inspector, I respectfully beg to say that the body of the house is washed down thoroughly every week, and I consider that the place was clean.

"As regards the clothing I would point out that the day on which the Inspector paid his visit, being a Saturday, same may not have been scrupulously clean after the inmates wear, and worn in the ordinary course be changed the following morning.

"There is no provision made for bathing the inmates, there being only small wash-hand basins in the body of the Workhouse.

"The inmates of the Infirm Wards, with the consent of the Board of Guardians, take their meals in their respective day rooms, which accounts for the presence of the tins. Jamboto & observed by the Inspector that morning, and I would suggest that the Board provide a press for the use of the inmates in these two Wards.

The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively, to the following effect (or orders made on them respectively, as follows) :—

No. 45.144 4 Sept. 1911

The Local Govt. Board wrote to state that they had before them the minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians on the 25th ult. when the Guardians had under consideration explanations from the Master and Matron with regard to the want of proper supervision of the Workhouse as referred to in the recent report of the Boards Inspector. Mr. R. Kelly.

The Board observed that the Master states there is no provision for the bathing of the inmates as only small wash-hand basins are provided for lavatory purposes in the body of the House. He also states that the inmates of the infirm wards take their meals in their respective day-rooms.

In reference thereto the Board desired to point out that it could not be expected that the proper cleanliness of the inmates could be secured unless they ~~are~~ were bathed regularly, and the Board requested that the Guardians would be so good as to provide baths for this purpose.

The Board had also to point out that the practice of allowing inmates to take their meals in their day-rooms is contrary to the provisions of article 16 of the Workhouse Rules. That article requires that the meals should be taken by all the paupers (except those disabled by sickness or infirmity, persons of unsound mind & children) in the dining hall, & in no other place whatever. & the Board requested that the regulations in this respect might be duly attended to in future.

Order: Referred to Visiting Committee for attention.
