Notes to Applicants

The Planning and Development (Extension of Duration) Regulations 2025 came into effect on 2nd August 2025 as per SI No. 378/2025. The provisions of the Planning and Development (Amendment) Act 2025 as they relate to Section 42 of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, came into effect on 1st August 2025.

The above legislation makes provision for a time limited extension of duration for developments of one or more houses to be granted for developments that have not yet commenced.

- Extension Of Duration application MUST be made within 6 months of the amendments to the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, coming into effect.
- The application must be made before the expiration of the permission but cannot be made more than 2 years before the permission expires.
- A time extension of up to 3 years may be granted.
- The Planning Authority must be satisfied that the development will be completed within a reasonable timeframe.

- An extension of the duration of permission granted shall cease to have effect if the development concerned has not commenced within 18 months of the new provisions coming into effect.

If substantial works are completed during this period and the planning authority is satisfied that the development will be completed within a reasonable time; a further extension of duration may be granted with the aggregate extensions of duration NOT exceeding 5 years. An application to further extend the duration of a permission may only be made once.

A planning authority shall not extend the appropriate period if an environmental impact assessment or an appropriate assessment would be required in relation to the proposed extension concerned.

The above does not purport to be a legal interpretation of the legislative provisions. Applicants are referred to Circular Letter PLR 02/2025 issued by the Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage, the Planning and Development (Amendment) Act 2025 and the Planning and Development (Extension of Duration – Planning and Development Act 2000) Regulations 2025.
